The Pastor's Blog

My favourite watch stopped working the other day. I brought it to 'The Watch Doctor' and the diagnosis was a dead battery that could be replaced for $15.00. The price did not sound too bad to me so I agreed. I window shopped for an hour while waiting for my watch to be repaired, and sure enough when I got there it was ready, but they did not want any of my money. It so happened that there was a tiny piece inside of the watch that had bent the last time the battery was replaced. All they had to do was bend it a little and the watch was back to working. The smallest pieces are still important.

We have so many different departments and even more so, different members. All of us are like pieces in a watch, and all of us are important. When one piece is broken, the whole watch suffers. Can you believe that the entire body of Christ suffers when you do? Whether or not you realize it, you are important to the entire body functioning the way God intended it to.

One of the crucial pieces to our church is our Pathfinders and they have a major day coming up called Camporee! In order to meet their target of $8700 by this coming August, they will need our assistance. If you would like to support their participation in Camporee, kindly place an offering in a tithe envelope and write "Pathfinders" beside the amount that you are contributing. In Jesus' name, we will see our Pathfinders successfully attending Camporee as you allow God to use you and see the results of answered prayers.

Always remember that what you bring for the Lord's body is important, and He is able to make the smallest donation go a long way.

Happy Sabbath and God bless you all!

~ Pr. Daniel Innocent ~

We Believe...

We believe that man's only salvation is by faith in Christ's life and sacrifice as the divine means of grace to us. (Acts 4:12; Ephesians 2:8; Romans 8:3, 4)

We turn to the entire Bible as a revelation of Jesus Christ. (Luke 24:27; 2Timothy 3:16)

We remember that it was through Jesus Christ that God created all things and that by Him they are upheld. (John 1:3; Colossians 1:16, 17; Hebrews 1:3)

We trust the Holy Spirit as Christ's personal representative to guide the human mind in Christian duty. (John 14:16, 17; John 16:13; Romans 8:9)

We look to the heavenly sanctuary as the site of Jesus' ministry for us as our high priest. (Hebrews 8:1, 2; Hebrews 4:15, 16; 1Timothy 2:5)

We have hope in the soon personal return of Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13; 1Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Matthew 24)

We find in the Ten Commandments Christ's code of conduct and expect that the believer will evidence the indwelling Christ by the demonstration of spiritual fruit. (John 14:15; Matthew 5:17-19; Hebrews 8:10; Galatians 5:22, 23; Philippians 4:13)

We believe that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit and that we should glorify Christ in every habit and practice. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

We understand that there is no intrinsic life in man, and that any life, present or eternal, is by virtue of Jesus Christ, the source of life. (Psalms 104:29; John 15:6; John 11:25)

We enjoy the seventh-day Sabbath as a reminder of Christ's creative power and as evidence of His redemptive power, which is found in the spiritual rest from the burden of sin. (Genesis 2:1-3; Mark 2:27, 28; Ezekiel 20:12; Hebrews 4:4-9)

We believe that the testimony of Jesus, the Spirit of Prophecy, will be manifest in God's remnant church. (Revelation 12:17; Revelation 19:10)

We are confident that the final judgement will be in favor of those who trust in Christ. (1Timothy 5:24; Acts 17:31; Daniel 7:21, 22)

We feel constrained to share the witness of Christ's blessings to all men everywhere. (Romans 1:14-17; Matthew 28:19, 20)

And finally, we anticipate that Christ will share eternal life with all those who accept His plan, and that these redeemed persons will inherit a restored planet from which all sin and selfishness will have been removed. Then, in a society of perfect trust and confidence, they will enjoy, to the full, the wonders of God's universe. (Matthew 5:5; John 14:1-13; Revelation 21:1-8)
