

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an
After glow of smiles
When life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo,
Whispering softly
Down the ways.
Of happy times and
Laughing times and
Bright and sunny days.*

Daniel Ross Miller, 69, Bismarck died February 2, 2018, at his home.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Thursday, February 8, 2018, at Buehler-Larson Funeral Home, Mandan. Cremation has taken place and burial will take place in the spring at Peace Cemetery in New Salem.

Daniel was born to Nathaniel “Tanny” and Alice Miller on July 22, 1948. He attended schools in Menoken and New Salem. He graduated from New Salem High School in 1966 and later Dickinson State in 1970. Dan’s greatest pleasure was his family. He especially enjoyed watching his nieces and nephews in sporting activities. You could always find “Uncle Danny” sitting on the sidelines watching family and friends children participate, and you could always hear him too. He was the brother and uncle who never ever forgot a birthday.

He is survived by his sisters, Marsha (Russell) Dittus, Mandan and their children and grandchildren, Mashelle (Vince) Arisman, Pardeeville, WI and their children, Lisa Williams; Lindsey Arisman and her daughters, Lillian and Penelope; and Chad Arisman; RoAnn Henderson, Lincoln, NE and her children, Alan (Andrea) Holly and their daughter, Emerson; and Neil Holly; sister Marlene (Scott) Norby, Mandan, and their children, Jeremy (Foujan) Volk, Los Angeles, CA, and their daughter, Rey; Jessica (Miles) Mehlhoff, Mandan, and their children, Hayden, Parker, and Maxsen; and Tami, Tari, and Tali Norby; and Dan’s former in-laws, Brad Volk, Mandan and Greg Holly, Lincoln, NE.

The family would like to thank Dan’s special friends, Ron and Sharon Mosbrucker and family for their continued support and friendship to Dan over the years and also David Weiss, Jim Wetzel, Bill Keuther, and Melvin Lennick.

Dan was preceded in death by his parents and a great niece, Taylor.
