

To Whom Loved You Baby Havanah

For the first time I laid my eyes on you, you made the sunshine even brighter for me that day. Even though you was fighting for your life Babygirl, you fought the battle until God said enough was enough. While you was here, the love you gave was the best and you'll be forever be in our hearts. Because everyone whom met you, you stole their hearts from that moment on. From the little cuddles, to the look in your eyes, we knew you was a gift from God. Even though you wasn't here for long, you painted everyones heart with love that will never be forgotten.
