

Obituary

Dolores J. Kennemer, 91, was called to her eternal resting place on January 27, 2024. She entered this world on July 23, 1932, in Wood County, Texas, born to William "Vernon" and Beulah Rogers.

Dolores was preceded in death by her parents, Vernon and Beulah Rogers, husband, Jesse Darnell Kennemer, brother, Charles Rogers, sisters, Madelyn Blayney and Nell Crabtree, daughter, Linda Gail Mead, son, Kevin Rogers Kennemer, infant son, Michael Ray Kennemer and grandson, Brett Alan Kennemer.

Dolores was an active volunteer during her children's school years, serving as PTA president on several occasions. While primarily a homemaker, she worked part-time for a number of years as a receptionist for Dr. Ron Daniels in Quitman. She was an avid basketball fan and rarely missed the opportunity to watch and cheer on her Mavs. She liked nothing better than sitting out on the back porch of her childhood home every morning with a cup of coffee and loved spending time with her family. She leaves behind her son, Joel Kennemer, of Irving, daughter, Aimee Camargo, of McKinney, and her 10 grandchildren, Stacey Mead, Kacy Mead, Dustin Mead, Chad Kennemer, Colby Kennemer, Kaylin Davidson, Brenna Russell, Morgan Sappelt, Blair Camargo and Bennett Camargo, as well as several great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and extended family.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake;
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me;
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord, forever.
