Recessional How Great Thou Art

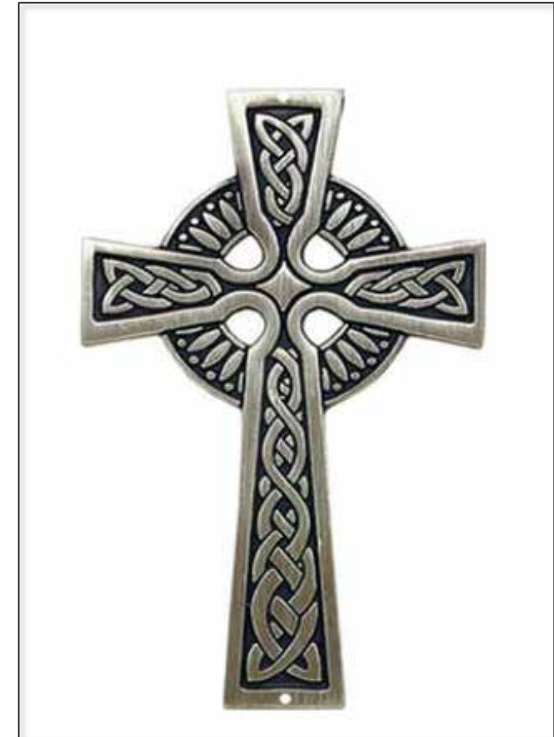

Thank you for honoring our father by your presence today.

Remains will be interred at a later date.

The family would like to thank Mindi Allen for interpreting the Mass in American Sign Language for Aaron O'Donnell. We would also like to thank Julie Flinders, Janette Young, their families, Hooper neighbors, and Laura's friends and colleagues at Hooper Elementary School for their contributions of food and service for the reception.

Entrance Hymn Be Not Afraid

First Reading Wisdom 3:1-6, 9

Reader: Savannah Brien

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are at peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, He proved them, and as sacrificial offerings, He took them to Himself. Those who trust in Him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with Him in love; because grace and mercy are with His holy ones, and His care is with His elect. This is the Word of the Lord.

Response: "Thanks be to God"

Second Reading Thessalonians 4: 13-18

Reader: Rolie O'Donnell

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with Him those who have fallen asleep. Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord Himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words. This is the Word of the Lord.

Response: "Thanks be to God"

Acclamation

Gospel Response: "Alleluia"

John 6: 37-40

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day.

Response: "Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ"

Offertory Gift bearers: John's Grandchildren

Offertory Hymn Prayer of St. Francis

Liturgy of the Eucharist Father Vidal

Great Amen Response: Amen

Our Father Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

... (some words by the priest)

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are Yours, now and forever. Amen.

Lamb of God Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Communion If you are not a practicing Catholic, please feel free to come forward and receive a blessing, by crossing your arms in front of your chest.

Communion Hymn I Am The Bread of Life

Final Commendation Gregorian Chant "Sub Venite" sung in Latin: Assist him ye Saints of God, run to meet him angels of the Lord. Receiving his soul; offering it in the sight of the Most High. May He receive thee, even Christ Who called thee; and into the bosom of Abraham, may the angels conduct thee, receiving his soul; offering it in the sight of the Most High. Rest eternal grant to him, Oh Lord, and light perpetual shine upon him. Offering it in the sight of the Most High.
