We the family wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to our family and friends for all acts of kindness shown during our moments of sorrow. Thank you and please keep us in your prayers. May God richly bless you.

“Goodbye..”

*In this life I pass, but I am awaiting my next one.
My flesh has withered away on earth, but my soul is with the Lord
And He has embraced me with open arms.
I lived for Him and now I am living with Him.
So please understand that I've accepted His invitation to come home.
I will be amongst those you have lost.
Your grandmothers, mothers, fathers, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
They say hello; and to give you a message.
The test is time and love, which hold no barriers with God.
His love is everlasting and His time inconceivable.
So utilize these things while you have them.
They are gifts freely given by our Lord and Savior.
In my absence; I leave you each other and my love.*

Wilma Goodseal

August 23, 1943- July 24, 2022

Wilma Patricia Thompson Goodseal, 78, was born on August 23, 1943, in Chicago, Illinois, the eldest of eight children born to Alfred and Elvira Roberts.

The family relocated to Kansas City, Missouri where she attended and graduated from Manual High School.

Wilma was known to her family as “Tricia”, but her friends called her “Pat” and a few of her children and grandchildren called her “Mommy”. Tricia worked various housekeeping jobs and volunteered at local churches. She enjoyed cooking (everything spicy). She made lots of friends throughout her lifetime and loved being with them all; Old and new.

Wilma passed away on Sunday, July 24, 2022, at Belton Regional Hospital in Belton, Missouri. She was preceded in death by both parents, Alfred Roberts, and Elvira Shelton; stepdad, Charles Shelton; three sisters, Jackie Belcher (Yero), Barbara Roberts, and Sylvia Merritt, and one daughter, Ramona Goodseal.

She leaves to cherish her memory seven children, Roland, Debbie, Brian, Jackie, Alfred, Akhtar, and Naomi; four brothers, Alfred (Jewel), Keith (Gloria), Wesley (Gale), and youngest brother, Clifton which whom she shared birthdays, and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
