The family of Amari Renia Imani Tolliver wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation, the many prayers, comforting messages, floral tributes, and other expressions of love and kindness evidenced at this time. May God continue to bless you all.

Amari leaves her family and friend's with this prayer.

*You've just walked on ahead of me
And I've got to understand
You must release the ones you love
And let go of their hand.*

*I try and cope the best I can
But I'm missing you so much
If I could only see you*

*And once more feel your touch.
Yes, you've just walked on ahead of me
Don't worry I'll be fine*

*But now and then I swear I feel
Your hand slip into mine.*

God Took Her To His Loving Home

God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be.

He wrapped her in his loving arms and whispered 'Come with me.'

She suffered much in silence, her spirit did not bend.

She faced her pain with courage, until the very end.

She tried so hard to stay with us but her fight was not in vain,

God took her to His loving home and freed her from the pain.

AnonShe was so very, very special

And was so from the start

You held her in your arms

But mainly in your heart

And like a single drop of rain

That on still waters fall,

Her life did ripples make

And touched the lives of all.

She's gone to play with angels

In heaven up above

So keep your special memories

And treasure them with love

Although your darling daughter

Was with you just a while

She'll live on in your heart With a sweet remembered smile.

Amari is survived by her mother, Latifa Tolliver; father, Brian Taylor; sister, Jackie Huggard; maternal grandmother, Terrilee; and paternal grandmother, Taylor.

Amari had a great personality. She loved to laugh, draw and write poetry. Amari would carry her stuffed animal "Mossy" around with her for security and wouldn't let anyone touch it... she loved her Mossy.

Amari's favorite flower was a lilly. She would say how beautiful and delicate they were and loved their smell. Amari loved nature, walking in the park and hoping to see unique animals along her way. Amari had struggles and always got through them. Amari loved to sing all kinds of music including opera. When Amari would laugh, you felt it, deep in your heart. Something we could never forget and the joy and smile on her face. Amari believed in accomplishing so much in life like going to nursing school, having children of her own and getting married to the love of her life. Amari won't be able to accomplish those dreams, but she has accomplished many other things that she put her all in. She is now with the Lord and pain free and now looking over her family and friends.
