The family of Kenneth Lee Burch Jr. want to thank everyone for the condolences, prayers, acts of kindness and outpouring of love at this time. KB was well loved and will be sadly missed.

Poem from KB

When I'm gone you will miss me but be your usual selves and cry, because I know that parting with me is hell and that and that life must go on. Remember me in your hearts, your thoughts, memories, and prayers. Remember the times I laughed and times we laughed together. Miss me and miss the times we shared. Miss holding my hand, and my hugs & kisses Remember me for my journey that I must take it alone.
