

Celebrating the Life of

Grandson

You were the center of our world,
A grandson held so dear.
But now that world is shattered,
And you're no longer here.
But all you need to know today,
Is how much joy you brought.
You brightened every moment,
Though your life was far too short.
You were loved completely,
From the day that you were born.
And no one could imagine,
Such a dreadful day would dawn.
But memories are wonderful,
And though they still bring pain.
They give us hope and keep us strong,
Until we meet again.

Acknowledgement

We the Saussy Family would like to express our gratitude for the many acts of kindness that each of you have contributed during our time of bereavement, especially to the ILA family and to the Adams family and staff. It is comforting to know that in our time of need, there are so many wonderful family and friends like all of you to help us through this time of bereavement. May the God of Grace and Mercy be with you all!

Thank You
The Saussy Family

Obituary

Khalil Marquez Saussy was born on September 20, 2002 to Marlon and Sonya Saussy along with his twin brother, Kameron M. Saussy and they were bundles of joy! Khalil grew up primarily in Savannah and McDonough, Georgia.

Khalil was a worker and had worked for Dairy Queen, McDonalds, Papa John's and briefly at Shaw Industries. He loved his parents, siblings, family and friends. He loved all types of music and he was a huge Marvel Comics fan.

Tragically, on the early morning of April 7, 2022, he went home to be with the Lord. His grandmother, Debra Ann Lewis, preceded him in death.

He leaves to mourn, two loving parents, Marlon and Sonya Saussy of Savannah, GA; his siblings he loved dearly, Aubry C. Lewis (Bro), Robert Moss (Bro), Marlon L. Saussy, Jr. (Bro), Marlaysia Saussy (Sis), Amari B. Saussy (Sis), and Kameron M. Saussy (Bro); his grandparents, Diana E. Anderson and Barron Saussy; and a host of aunts, uncles, one niece, cousins and sorrowing friends.
