

When the Roll is Called Up Yonder

When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound
And time shall be no more
And the morning breaks eternal bright and fair
When the saved of earth shall gather over
On the other shore
And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there

*When the roll is called up yonder
When the roll is called up yonder
When the roll is called up yonder
When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there

On that bright and cloudless morning
When the dead in Christ shall rise
And the glory of his resurrection share
When His chosen ones shall gather
To their home beyond the skies
And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there

*Two times

The Old Rugged Cross

On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross
The emblem of suffering and shame
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown

To the old rugged cross, I will ever be true
It's shame and reproach gladly bear
Then he'll call me some day to my home far away
Where his glory forever I'll share

And I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down
And I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown

Memories

A Celebration of Life
Richard Dean Koenig

Richard “Dick” Dean Koenig, 90, of McPherson, KS and formerly of Kansas City and Eureka, passed away peacefully on Thursday, February 29, 2024, at The Cedars, McPherson.

He was born on August 6, 1933, in Wichita, KS, the son of Frank Henry and Maude Mae (Cummins) Koenig. He graduated from Parsons High School and received an associate’s degree from Butler County Community College. On October 23, 1954, Richard was united in marriage to Phyllis Ann Wood in Poplar Bluff, MO. They were married for 68 years prior to her passing on June 23, 2023.

Richard served briefly in the United States Army and later enlisted in the United States Navy during the Korean War. Prior to being a Regional Claims Manager for Farm Bureau Insurance, he was a Colorado State Highway Patrol Officer.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church, McPherson, Masonic Lodge, Midian Shrine, Sons of the American Revolution, and Life Member of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Survivors include three children, Cheryl (Galen) Swisher of Kula, HI, Steve (Connie) Koenig of Maize, KS, and Judy (Robert) Sanders of Evans, GA; five grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; seven step-great-grandchildren; and many extended family members.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife; siblings, Lucille Taylor, Dorothy Pracht, Frank “Bud” Koenig, Charles Koenig, and Harry “Darwin” Koenig; and great-grandson, Hendrix Koenig.

Just As I Am

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bid’st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come! I come!

Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt;
Fightings and fears within without,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind;
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23
