The couple divorced after some years together, but they remained friends until his death. Scott then found love again with Susan Martinson, who he was with for over 15 years before his passing.

As Scott got older, he and Susan enjoyed working on puzzles together. Scott loved reading western novels; he tried to get everyone else to read them too. He often enjoyed playing Bingo at the Eagles and VFW, where he was known for his jovial spirit. While Scott might have slowed down with some outdoor activities, he still enjoyed going out in the sun and tending to his beautiful garden.

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23
