Reflections of Her Life

Geraldine Ewing was born June 12, 1942 in Jackson, TN to Ivory Haynes, Sr. and Leahree Haynes Lyles.

She confessed Christ early in life and was a member of Macedonia Baptist Church for many years. Later, she became a member of Rehoboth Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor P. H. Tisdale, Jr.

Geraldine attended the public schools of Jackson, Tennessee. She loved being a care giver and worked many years at Jackson Madison County General Hospital as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) and also with various home agencies. Aunt Geraldine, as she was affectionately called, was a blessing to our family. She took care of several family members taking them into her home and caring for them when they became ill.

Geraldine was married to Clarence Ewing, III on April 3, 1987. To this union, God blessed them with a marriage of 22 years.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Clarence; sons, Michael & Murray Haynes; siblings, Ivory Haynes, Donnell (Deloris) Haynes, Johnny Haynes, Joseph Haynes, Eugene Haynes, Tony C. Haynes, Barbara Jean Barnett, Betty Haynes Cunningham, Virginia A. Thompson and Josephine Walton.

She leaves to cherish her memories, a granddaughter, Shanika Berry; sister, Prentiss J. Merriweather; special caregivers: a niece, Vicki Simmons; sister-in-law, Linda (Nathan) Pride; Patsy (Varnell) Womack, Willette (James) Davenport, Edwin Ewing, Sylvia Naptha-Clark and Cheryl Brown; she leaves also a special niece, Patricia (Norman) Gray, as well as her great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.

Recessional

Go Forth

Go forth with a smile,
wearing courage with style,
Faith in God, go Forth

Destiny awaits, don't stumble, don't cry,
No fear, just joy.

The oil of love is one step away,
Jesus open arms await, walk in his splendor
Embrace in his might

For we are children of the light.
Go thru that door, don't be afraid
Never look back, victory has begun.
It was silent, but now it speaks loudly
Go forth my people, go forth, go forth.
