When Tomorrow Starts

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears of me;*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you loved me,
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me too;*

*When tomorrow starts without me
We won't be far apart,
I want you to remember,
I'm right here, in your heart.*

~ Reflections of Her Life ~

Mrs. Rosie Lee “Rose” Garrett, daughter of the late Lonnie Williams and Josie Dean Brownlow- Williams was born November 14, 1942, in Leflore County, Mississippi. She attended Okolona Junior College and later Rust College where she completed her Bachelor’s degree in elementary education. She began her teaching career in New Madrid, MO in 1966. She taught in both the Illinois and Missouri Public Schools.

Rose later moved to Kansas City, Kansas where she opened Garrett’s Child Care and Tutoring and continued educating children of all ages for over 40 years until closing in 2013.

She was united in holy matrimony to Russell Garrett on July 10, 1969. This union was blessed with two children, Konya Tyler and Kila-Kitu Garrett.

Mrs. Garrett was a devoted teacher. She enjoyed cooking and spending time with family. She often opened her home to both family and friends alike in times of need. She was a great listener and always provided positive words of wisdom, and a home cooked meal.

Rose departed this life at home on Monday, August 15, 2022. She was preceded in death by her husband, Russell Garrett. Her beautiful life will forever be cherished in the lives of her children: Konya (Sean) Tyler of Kansas City, KS and Kila-Kitu Garrett of Arlington, TX; goddaughter, Yolanda Bayless of Bolingbrook, IL; grandchildren, Airon Webb of Kansas City, KS and Airica Tyler of Arlington, TX; sister, Dorothy Chavers of Memphis, TN; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends that she loved dearly.

Her influence will forever be cherished in the lives of everyone that knew her. She always reminded us to do what we can and not to worry about the rest. And remember, no matter what you are going through, things could always be worse.
