

Isaiah 40:31

O Lord help me in faith wait on You in love You will my fainting heart renew,
Like a bald eagle I will gracefully soar richly blessed in Your wondrous presence more and more.

Lord You are the wind beneath my wings
in Your presence my heart joyfully sings,
You shelter me Lord in Your strong loving arms through loving grace, You protect me from all that harms.

Lord teach me in faith in You to rest in Your presence I am most richly blessed,
As I cast my care here on You, I now know
into the sweet likeness of Jesus, I can grow.

O Lord by Your Spirit I will soar
Your loving presence in me You now pour,
Waiting on You, I look past my pain
in confidence trace the rainbow through falling rain.

Darrell was born November 8, 1935 on a ranch in Mellette County, SD to Harold and Amy (Rada) Iwan. He was the 5th of 11 children. In 1948 he moved with family to Deadwood, SD but still spent his summers back home on the ranch. He graduated from Deadwood High School in 1953. He stayed home and worked on the ranch until 1958 when he joined the Army for Airborne Duty with the 101st Airborne Division in Fort Campbell, KY. He did his Ranger training in the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee. His platoon won top honors through Company, Battle Group, and Division competition in the field. After leaving the service, he returned home to the ranch.

On July 15, 1961, he married the love of his life, Carol (Rodgers), they had two children together, Reba and Clinton. In 1970 they moved to Belvidere, SD where he went to work for the Milwaukee Railroad. He continued his passion for the railroad working for private contractors throughout the Western and Southern states, as well as Alaska, building new tracks and upgrading old ones. Upon retirement, he returned to Deadwood, SD where you could find him doing seasonal work at the local golf courses or grooming trails throughout the Black Hills. He had a passion for fishing, rock hunting, trapping, collecting antiques, and spending time with his grandchildren. In 2019 he moved to Gillette where he was able to spend time with his Great-Grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife, Carol; daughter, Reba (Owen); son, Clinton (Deanette); grandchildren, Rachel; Laura (Travis); Sarah; Tanya (Modesto); Grant (Jeremy); great-grandchildren, Lainah, Autumn, Natasha, Lorelei, Lucas, Thomas, Daniel, Lucy; siblings, Rodney, Floyd, Joe, Roger and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Amy and siblings, Phyllis, Joyce, Paul, Arlene, Beryle Jean, and Donny.
