Lucille was born on February 8, 1933, to William and Leana Miller. On Oct. 1, 1952, she married the love of her life, Herbert Ritz. They were blessed celebrating 71 years of marriage. She started her married life by working and caring for her husband and three children and enjoyed time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She worked many years at Arrowhead Cleaners.

Lucille enjoyed spending time & chatting with her friends, dancing, playing cards and traveling. She once told her daughter that when she started her married life that she wasn't a very good cook or baker. Over time, she perfected these skills. Lucille's potato salad, fried chicken and caramel rolls were especially great.. her family and friends loved them!

*You're a part of everything that means the most to me—
family, good times and love.
You're a part of that inner voice
that's with me through the day.*

*I may not always say it,
But you're on my mind and in my heart.*

I love you.
