

Rochester Lucas, 84 of Bowling Green passed away peacefully at his home when the Lord called his number at 9:02 p.m. Friday, Aug. 31, 2012 with his wife, kids, grandkids and family around him. The Warren County native was a son of the late Chester Lucas and Lottie Manco Lucas. He is preceded in death by a son Henry Melvin Lucas and two daughters-in-law, Shirley Lucas and Martina Lucas. He was a butcher, farmer and member of Boiling Springs Church of Christ and a WWII Army Veteran.

Survivors include his wife Joy Miller Lucas; a son, Marvin Lucas; two daughters, Hilda Jones (Danny), and Hazel Watt (Larry); 13 grandchildren, Dana Phelps, Dona Jones, Deanna Rogers, Patricia Graves, Tammy Flaskamp, Melissa Johnson, Angie Goodrum, Monica Ross, Jennifer Jones, Melvin Lucas, Billy Herald, Barney Herald, Michelle Cowles; 23 great grandchildren ; one great great grandchild; a brother-in-law, Paul Miller (Carolyn) Funeral service will be 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, September 4, 2012 at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial at Penns Chapel Cemetery. Visitation will be 2:00-8:00 p.m. Monday at the funeral home.

Send Condolence