Life's Journey Eugene CARTER Sr.

Eugene Carter, Sr. was born August 6, 1946 to the late Mary Franklin Carter and Harvey Clyde Carter.

As a young boy, Eugene worked as a share-cropper and picked cotton to help support his family. This experience developed his love for gardening and growing vegetables.

Eugene received his elementary and secondary education in the Tyrnza, Arkansas School District. After high school, to further his education, he joined the Job Corp, where he was trained as a machinist.

After receiving certification he moved to Chicago, and later to Mississippi. It was there, he met his first wife, Wilmer Faye Williams, and moved to Colorado. This union produced one son, Eugene Carter, Jr. This marriage was later dissolved.

After moving to Colorado Eugene wanted to update his skills, so he enrolled in college classes, which allowed him to advance his profession.

During this time, his heart was captured by Theresa Yvonne Johnson and on November 30, 1973, they were united in marriage. This union produced one son, Terry Lynn Johnson.

Eugene worked as a Machinist Supervisor for over 50 years at Rocky Mountain Arsenal, Chaparral Industries, Teledyne Pines/H&H Tool Division, and Martin Marietta. He retired from Teledyne Pines/H&H Tool Division.

Eugene was an all-around handy man and could fix almost anything. He could take apart an engine and put it back together. He was a kind-hearted gentle soul, who had a love for gardening. He always had a beautiful vegetables garden and would share his bounty with the community.

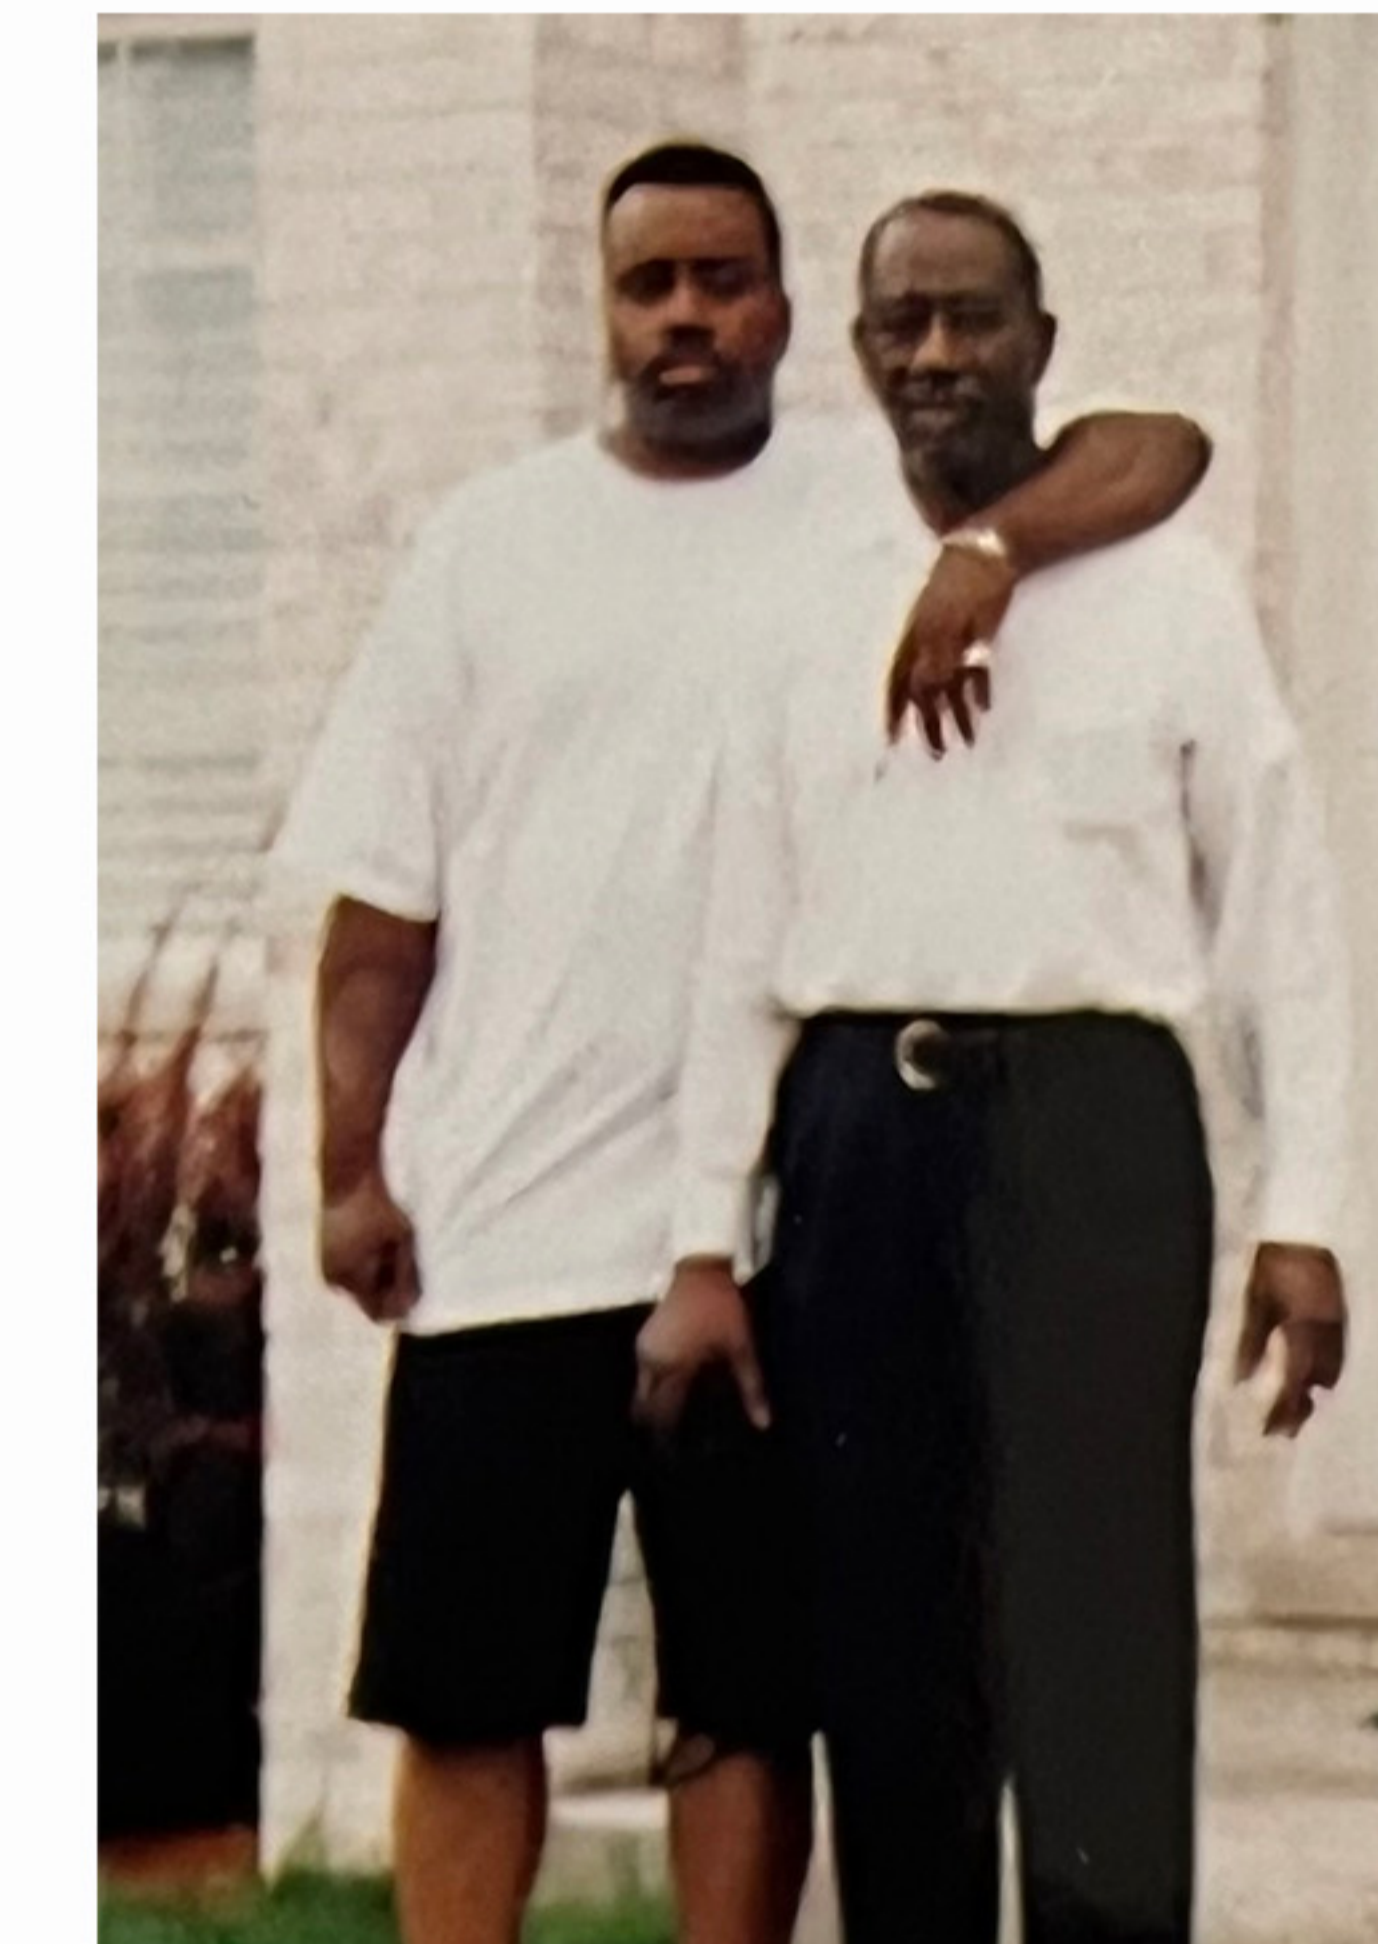

Eugene was a member of the Old Skool Street Rollers Car Club. He was the proud owner of his 1970 Chevy Chevelle SS.

Eugene was a dedicated husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He was always willing to help others.

He loved to cook and his Thanksgiving Turkey was the best!

Eugene had a calling for teaching. Whether it was at church or work, without hesitation, he willingly shared his knowledge. It was this love for teaching, that he was found tutoring math to youth. To him, it was not teaching, but rather, his reasonable service.

Eugene is preceded in death by three brothers and three sisters. He is survived by his loving wife, Theresa, two sons, Eugene Jr. and Terry, six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, nine brothers, seven sisters and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

Psalm 23 A psalm of David

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
