Eternal Color

In spring, tree's leaves were merely buds
when everything was new.

They couldn't shade, nor hide a bird,
but every day they grew.

Now autumn's here, and leaves have turned from summertime's full bloom.

They separate from branch, their home,
and snow will be their tomb.

How sad that when they're at their peak
it's time for them to go.

Yet, how colorful they made this world;
it was God's plan, I know.

Your life, too, was most beautiful;
how brightly shown your heart.

For now, my friend, you've joined the leaves,
and from us, did depart.

Separated from us on earth
you've joined the Lord above.

We'll miss you here, our dearest friend,
but glad you taught us love.
