The Life Journey of Mr. James Anthony McPherson

"I have fought a good fight,

I have finished my course,

I have kept the faith:

2 Timothy 4:7

James was born on September 8, 1951 to James Henry McPherson and Loretta Curtis Branham. He was preceded in death by his parents, and brothers Walter Branham, Jr. and Greg McPherson. James attended the Public Schools of Chatham County. He later moved to New York City and resided there for four years.

Upon returning to Savannah, he was employed with the International Longshoremen's Association Local 1414. He was a faithful and dedicated employee for over 40 years, retiring in 2016.

James (Tony) was loved by everyone. He was a loving brother, uncle and friend. Tony had a heart of gold. He has provided assistance in putting many kids through college, helped graduating seniors, and assisted anyone who needed his help. He will be remembered by the community for having a benevolent spirit and being so kind to the children. It was not unusual for him to fill a U-Haul trailer with brand new bicycles to give away for Christmas.

On August 10, 2020, James Anthony McPherson peacefully transitioned for labor to Heavenly reward.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories, his siblings, Evangelist Fannie Floyd (Prentis), Angel B. Hakim (Timai) of Maryland, Mary Branham, Evangelist Magdeline B. Scott, Moses Branham (Mona) of Atlanta, GA, Samuel Branham (Belinda), Felcia Williams (Fredrick), Reginald McPherson (Ira), Ervin McPherson (Cheryl), Larry McPherson (Maryland), Bulah James, Brenda Clayton, Dana Smith, and Kenneth Branham; a host of uncles, aunts, nephews and nieces; 2 goddaughters, Princess G. Perkins and Chareanna Mitchell; and a loving friend of 37 years, Sandra Bennett.

A Tribute To Our Brother

Our family is full of memories of our brother
we lay to rest

And every single one of them is filled with happiness

For you were someone special

Always such a joy to know

And there was so much pain

When it was time to let you go

That's why this special message

Is sent to Heaven above

For the Angels to take care of you

And give you all our love

Love,
Your Sisters and Brothers

A Tribute To Our Uncle

A limb has fallen from the family tree

You were a special uncle
As Special as can be.

Of all the many blessings to have,
To have you as my uncle was the greatest one of all

Although we live you dearly,
We could not make you stay

With our eyes we watched you pass away
Even though it breaks our hearts

God needed you more

We will always have you in our hearts

Thank you for all you have done for us.

Until we meet again

Acknowledgements

Thank You!

The family of the late James Anthony McPherson wishes to express sincere gratitude for all acts of kindness during our time of bereavement. Your phone calls, visits, flowers, gifts, thoughts, and prayers have helped us tremendously during this difficult time. It is our prayer that God may continue to bless each of you. Many thanks to Sarah Singleton-Crawford and the Staff of Georgia Hospice, who assisted during his final transition.

"Miss Me, But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.
