On the Other Side of Death

Death is a gateway we all must pass through
To reach that fair land where the soul's born anew
For man's born to die, and his sojourn on earth
Is a short span of years beginning with birth.
And like pilgrims we wander until death takes our hand
And we start on the journey to God's Promised Land.
A place where we'll find no suffering or tears,
Where time is not counted in days, months, or years.
And in that fair city that God has prepared
Are unending joys to be happily shared
With all our loved ones who patiently wait
On death's other side to open the gate.
To God Be the Glory!

OBITUARY

Juliette Scantlebury Alleyne (nee Ruck), daughter of the late Wilfred and Naomi Ruck, was born on June 1, 1937, in Christ Church, Barbados. She was one of twelve children. She was predeceased by four siblings, Ena, Keith, Elva and O'Brien.

Juliette attended the Christ Church Elementary Girls School and the Green Lynch Secondary School where she received the London Chamber of Commerce certificate. She worked at the Barbados General Hospital as a student nurse and Christ Church Post Office before migrating to the United States of America.

In the USA, she worked in the nursing profession for a period of time. Soon afterwards, she attended the New York School of Mechanical Dentistry where she received a Dental Diploma approved by the State of New York and worked as a Dental assistant for a short time before working for the Brooklyn Public Library.

Her thirst for knowledge continued when she enrolled at C. F. Young Secretarial School where she received an Executive Secretarial Diploma. Juliette joined Chase Manhattan Bank where she worked in the payroll department for 25 years before her retirement.

One of her hobbies was gardening, which she did often during the spring and summer months, which supplied her with beautiful flowers and vegetables for her use and to share with others. After being at home for a short period of time after retirement, Juliette was invited by the late Sister Grace Moore to the Hope City Empowerment Center. At the center, she worked in administration and was involved in many activities throughout the years, which brought her much joy.

Sis. Scantlebury was married to the late Wycliff Scantlebury. Their union was blessed with two sons: the late Dexter and Patrick Scantlebury. She was a faithful member of the Bethel Church of the Nazarene for many years where she served as Missionary President and in other ministries but one of her greatest joys was her love of Missions. Later, she married the late Bentley Alleyne. She joined her husband Bentley and became a member of St. Paul's Church of the Nazarene, where she served as the Church Treasurer and was involved

Hymn 442: Blessed Assurance

1. Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.
  - Refrain:
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.
2. Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels, descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.
3. Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my Savior am happy and blest,
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love.

Hymn 650: When We All Get to Heaven

1. Sing the wondrous love of Jesus,
Sing His mercy and His grace;
In the mansions bright and blessed
He'll prepare for us a place.
  - Refrain:
When we all get to heaven,
What a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus,
We'll sing and shout the victory!
2. While we walk the pilgrim pathway,
Clouds will overspread the sky;
But when trav-'ling days are over,
Not a shadow, not a sigh.
3. Let us then be true and faithful,
Trusting, serving every day;
Just one glimpse of Him in glory
Will the toils of life repay.
4. Onward to the prize before us!
Soon His beauty we'll behold;
Soon the pearly gates will open;
We shall tread the streets of gold.

Hymn 225: And Can It Be

1. And can it be that I should gain
An int'rest in the Savior's blood?
Died He for me, who caused His pain—
For me, who Him to death pursued?
Amazing love! How can it be,
That Thou, my God, shouldst die for me?
  - Refrain: Amazing love! How can it be,
That Thou, my God, shouldst die for me?
2. He left His Father's throne above—
So free, so infinite His grace—
Emptied Himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race:
'Tis mercy all, immense and free,
For, O my God, it found out me!
  - Refrain: 'Tis mercy all, immense and free,
For, O my God, it found out me!
3. Long my imprisoned spirit lay,
Fast bound in sin and nature's night;
Thine eye diffused a quick'ning ray—
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light;
My chains fell off, my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed Thee.
  - Refrain: My chains fell off, my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed Thee.
4. No condemnation now I dread;
Jesus, and all in Him, is mine;
Alive in Him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine,
Bold I approach th' eternal throne,
And claim the crown, through Christ my own.
  - Refrain: Bold I approach th' eternal throne,
And claim the crown, through Christ my own.
