

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd:

I shall not want...

He maketh me to lie down

in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside

the still waters...

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths

of righteousness for His name's sake...

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff,

they comfort me. Thou preparest a table

before me in the presence of mine

enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over...

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Shirley Jean Kise was born July 16, 1935, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, the daughter of Alfred and Florence (Sayre) Stasel. Shirley led a life based on her terms. She started out as a city kid and soon chose a path dictated mostly by her love of horses. Her rural aspirations had her first on a hobby farm in Dayton, followed by a brief stint on a farm in Madison, ultimately leading her to her making a home in Atwater, the place she spent the next nearly 50 years. While she raised four children along the way she never really settled down until she met the love of her life, Ron Fredrick. Together from 1995 on they saw much of the country in a pickup while maintaining a simple home life on the farm with their horses.

She is survived by her partner in life, Ron; her four children, Sue (and Johnathan) Smith of New Port Richey, FL., Bob (and Kathy) Wise of Placida, FL., Melanie (and Dan) Ackerman of Columbia, SD., and Brad (Kristin) Wise of Andover, MN. She also had eight grandchildren; Corey, Justine, Tanya, Amos, Laura, Samantha, Connor and Haili and multitudes of great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Stanley Stasel and Allen Stasel and one sister, Barbara Pasquarette.
