

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

For thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

In Loving Memory of

Harold Weston

February 7, 1947 ~ October 8, 2024

Harold was born February 7, 1947, in Langdon, ND, to Erwin and Irene (South) Weston. He attended Sarles High School and graduated from Border Central in 1965. He worked road construction for the county while he attended North Dakota School of Forestry in Bottineau, ND, for a year and Devils Lake Junior College. Harold married Gail Gage on November 20, 1966, at the Langdon Presbyterian Church. After getting married, he worked for Bill Sparks until deciding that he would farm. He and Gail moved to the family farm in 1970. Along with farming, Harold operated his own trucking business. For health reason, he quit farming but continued trucking and also drove school bus for Border Central School. He and Gail moved to Langdon in 2016.

Harold enjoyed his vehicles and keeping them polished and clean, earning him the nickname “Mr. Clean”. He also collected toy cars and tractors. He was a member of Sarles Presbyterian Church until its closing and was a former member of the school board at Border Central School.

Surviving Harold are his wife, Gail, of Langdon; children: Aaron of Langdon, Andrea (John) Lawton of Lockport, NY, and Warren of Langdon; grandchildren: Ashley (Derrick) Reed, Elizabeth (Jeremy) Martin, Kayla Weston, Alex Weston (Allison), Evan Lawton; Amy Lawton, Anna Lawton; great-grandchildren: Isla, Hadley, Norah, Callie, Abigail, Alayna, Caleb, Joshua; sister Carol Dietz; sister-in-law Marilyn Weston; along with many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; and brothers: Herbert (Marjorie), Richard (Marion), and Glenn.

Harold passed away October 8, 2024, at his home in Langdon at the age of 77.
