For Today: Why Read the Lists?

“I’m glad you’re the one reading this,” said the patient husband.

He was referring to the tongue-twisting list of names in 1 Chronicles 5 with all their adjacent vowels and unexpected consonant blends. I could see his point but, to be honest, I was enjoying the effort of decoding the names and then saying them, one by one, out loud to the air inside our mini-van.

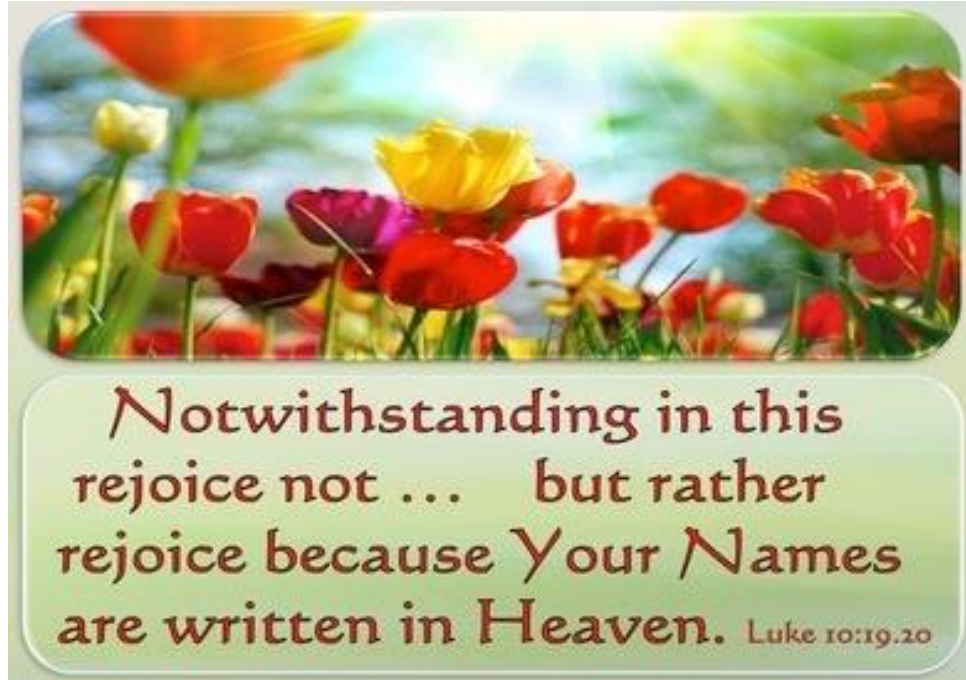

As we waded through the Bible names, I couldn’t ignore the repeated evidence that God keeps records of the names of His people. When we look at an old yearbook or at the many pictures that scroll their way through our social media minutes, it is human nature to look for the faces and names of those we recognize and love. God needs no news feed to keep track of His beloved, and every face, every name has significance to Him. This truth is prevalent throughout the Old Testament: remember Moses begging God to wipe his own name out of the book rather than giving up on his people? And the lists go on throughout the books of history right into Nehemiah and the years of exile.

In the New Testament, Jesus told the Seventy (when they returned from their short-term missions trip), “Rejoice because your names are written in heaven.” His message to them was that God’s cherishing and recording of their name was more reason for them to rejoice than their ability to “trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy” (Luke 10:17-20).

Just as God sees all time at once, exists outside of time, and yet is available to you in your moment, so He also sees all of humanity at once — and yet He cherishes uniqueness. He knows you by name.

Happy Sabbath!

Closing Hymn, “Watchman, Blow the Gospel Trumpet” Hymn 368

But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Eph 2:4-10

Welcome

We are glad that you came to worship Jesus with us today! Our prayer is that through Bible study, prayer, and song, you will experience God's presence and blessing.

Our Hymn of the Month Composer: Most British hymn writers in the nineteenth century were clergymen, but English-born William Chatterton Dix (1837–1898) was a notable exception. Trained in the business world, he became the manager of a marine insurance company in Glasgow, Scotland. Nevertheless, he managed to write many beloved hymns, 30 to 40 which are in common use.

Clark Fork, Sunset tonight: 8:48 p.m.; next Friday night: 8:47 p.m.
