Today is Day of Prayer and Fasting

Theme: World-Changing Prayer Warriors - Prayers that Change Our Perspective. In the Bible, fasting is not an option, it's a given. Matthew 6:17 does not say, 'If you fast,' but rather, 'When you fast.' Fasting has always been part of the lifestyle of believers, just like praying and studying the Bible. In the Bible, every time God's people prayed and fasted, God worked mightily on their behalf. From deliverance from their enemies in battle to supernatural deliverance from prison, to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost we see a pattern. We're inviting you to join us for our quarterly day of prayer and fasting for our church and specifically for those we long to see come to know Christ in a real relationship that leads to salvation and a life of commitment to Him.

There will be a Pathfinder Family Fun Night tonight, 7:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Please come out and have some wholesome fun and support the Pathfinders as they prepare for Camporee. Donations will be accepted. Please see Director Hardy or Daniel Ayoo for details.

A Touch-of-Love program is scheduled for tomorrow, Sunday, April at 10:00 a.m.

There will be a Board meeting on Tuesday, April 9 at 7:00 p.m. This replaces the one currently scheduled for April 16, which is being brought forward as a result of the spring revival series.

Happy Birthday – Andrea Spencer – April 4

The Pathfinder Club is looking for volunteers. Please see Jonathan or Michaela Hardy for details.

The Pastor's Blog

Committed to Maturity - Growing in Christ! This is the second leg of our 2019 Discipleship journey. Part one was Committed to Membership - Knowing Christ. The Apostle Paul alluded to this in 1 Corinthians 13 when he talks about “putting away childish things” in his teachings of what it means to love and be loved. If we build a little further on Paul’s analogy, we are prompted to ask, what are some of the differences between things that children deal with compared to adults? What are the responsibilities that we gradually assume as we move from childhood into adulthood? Everyone is on a path of growth whether they like it or not. The moment we are born into this world, physical growth and maturation begins. It is a process that cannot be stopped. Even though cosmetic surgeons are successful in correcting some of the wrinkles that appear with time and physical aging, they in and of themselves cannot stop the process, even in their own lives.

However, spiritual aging can be different. The process takes work and reflection and does not necessarily happen on autopilot, as does our physical aging. It is also a wonderful and welcomed experience as we look back and to the future with a sense of what God has been transforming in us. Passages from the book, Desire of Ages (noted as DOA - chapter) have been chosen for this quarter. It is our hope that you enjoy each one of these stories and try to gauge your maturation in Christ through these lenses. These passages are also the foundation for our prayer meetings: April 3 DOA 18, April 10 DOA 27, April 24 DOA 22, May 1 DOA 24, May 8 DOA 19, May 22 DOA 32, May 29 DOA 54, June 5 DOA 40, Jun 12 DOA 27, June 19 DOA 56 and June 26 DOA 71. Please retain this schedule for your records.

Now back to my reflections on Christian Maturity. Just as we would water a plant, attend to it and see it through to maturity, the same is required for our spiritual lives. No wonder the biblical record refers to blessed persons using imagery of them as planted by rivers of water.

As we go into part two, we also enter into a season of revival at the same time. This is a time of recommitment asking God to prune away that which is unlike Him. Why do we need revival and is there a link to Christian maturity? I believe that there is. First, it is to thank God for what He is doing for us as we grow in Christ. Second, it is a time of coming together to re-examine our walk with God and to ask Him to remove the sin in our lives - sin which is keeping us down and preventing us from moving forward and being all that God would have us to be. And finally, it is a time to claim Victory in Jesus.

Are you planning to attend? If so, why? Are you planning not to attend? If not, why not? Are you justified in attending? If so, why? Are you justified in not attending? If so, why not? Does any of this matter to God? If so, why? With or without this week of revival, are you right with God? If so, why? Are you Committed to Maturity?

~ Pr. Robert Greaves ~

We Believe...

We believe that man's only salvation is by faith in Christ's life and sacrifice as the divine means of grace to us. (Acts 4:12; Ephesians 2:8; Romans 8:3, 4)

We turn to the entire Bible as a revelation of Jesus Christ. (Luke 24:27; 2Timothy 3:16)

We remember that it was through Jesus Christ that God created all things and that by Him they are upheld. (John 1:3; Colossians 1:16, 17; Hebrews 1:3)

We trust the Holy Spirit as Christ's personal representative to guide the human mind in Christian duty. (John 14:16, 17; John 16:13; Romans 8:9)

We look to the heavenly sanctuary as the site of Jesus' ministry for us as our high priest. (Hebrews 8:1, 2; Hebrews 4:15, 16; 1Timothy 2:5)

We have hope in the soon personal return of Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13; 1Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Matthew 24)

We find in the Ten Commandments Christ's code of conduct and expect that the believer will evidence the indwelling Christ by the demonstration of spiritual fruit. (John 14:15; Matthew 5:17-19; Hebrews 8:10; Galatians 5:22, 23; Philippians 4:13)

We believe that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit and that we should glorify Christ in every habit and practice. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

We understand that there is no intrinsic life in man, and that any life, present or eternal, is by virtue of Jesus Christ, the source of life. (Psalms 104:29; John 15:6; John 11:25)

We enjoy the seventh-day Sabbath as a reminder of Christ's creative power and as evidence of His redemptive power, which is found in the spiritual rest from the burden of sin. (Genesis 2:1-3; Mark 2:27, 28; Ezekiel 20:12; Hebrews 4:4-9)

We believe that the testimony of Jesus, the Spirit of Prophecy, will be manifest in God's remnant church. (Revelation 12:17; Revelation 19:10)

We are confident that the final judgement will be in favor of those who trust in Christ. (1Timothy 5:24; Acts 17:31; Daniel 7:21, 22)

We feel constrained to share the witness of Christ's blessings to all men everywhere. (Romans 1:14-17; Matthew 28:19, 20)

And finally, we anticipate that Christ will share eternal life with all those who accept His plan, and that these redeemed persons will inherit a restored planet from which all sin and selfishness will have been removed. Then, in a society of perfect trust and confidence, they will enjoy, to the full, the wonders of God's universe. (Matthew 5:5; John 14:1-13; Revelation 21:1-8)
