

Jeanne Delaine (Nobel) Landegent was born September 23, 1935, near Rock Valley, Iowa, the daughter of John and Nellie (Baker) Nobel. She grew up on farms near Rock Valley with her older brother and sister.

Jeanne attended school in Rock Valley and graduated from Western Christian High School in Hull, Iowa, where she used her height to play basketball. After high school, she worked in the Sioux Center, Iowa and Sioux Falls, South Dakota hospitals.

Jeanne married the love of her life, Case Landegent, on April 15, 1955. They lived in Rock Valley and Bellflower, California before moving to the farm near Alford, Iowa in 1958. The farm was home for 33 years. Jeanne was her husband's helping hand during spring planting and harvest. They raised their 5 children on the farm with Jeanne sewing many of their clothes, providing them with fresh vegetables and canned goods from her large garden, and giving them a loving, Christian home. She loved flowers as well and shared seeds and roots with family and friends.

Jeanne began working at the Rock Valley Sale Barn and Hay Auction in 1976. She loved working with her co-workers and farmers and worked there for 25 years before retiring. In 1991, Case and Jeanne moved to Inwood and continued to stay busy with their 20 grandchildren's many sport events and music programs. In retirement, Case and Jeanne continued to go fishing and travel, visiting all 50 states and many foreign countries.

Jeanne was a faithful member of the Inwood Christian Reformed Church and enjoyed being involved in Bible studies and church events. Jeanne passed away surrounded by her children on Tuesday, October 31, 2023, at Fellowship Village in Inwood at the age of 88.

Jeanne is survived by her children, LaVonda (Casey) Scholten of Larchwood, Iowa, Michelle (Dan) Teunissen of Alford, Iowa, Craig (Sharon) Landegent of Alford, Iowa, Sheila (Dan) Ter Wee of Inwood, Iowa, and Dawn Halling of Harrisburg, South Dakota; 20 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren with 2 expected soon; sister, Dorothy Ver Hey of Lennox, South Dakota; brother-in-law, William "Bill" Landegent of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; sisters-in-law, Helen Nobel of Wayland, Michigan, Kay Van Otterloo of Lakewood, California, Audrey Landegent of Orange City, Iowa, and Nyla Landegent of Bellevue, Nebraska; and many nephews and nieces.

Jeanne was preceded in death by Case, her husband of 53 years; her parents, John and Nellie Nobel; her brother, Bernie Nobel; her son-in-law, Jim Halling; and her grandson-in-law, Ben Dieters.

A Wish for My Family & Friends

*A wish comes to mind, my dear ones
May you understand God's plan
Know and truly see
No one loves as He can.
Even though sadness comes
When life takes its toll,
Are we not to mourn
Or instead be joyful?*

*No! then you would lose the blessing
That comes with sorrow's hour,
You then would lose the comfort
Of Christ's own mighty power;
Oft in the deepest trial
The richest blessing comes
And pain but leads us upward
Toward our heavenly home.*

*So I will leave your future
In His all-loving hand.
With Him will leave the mysteries
We cannot understand,
Content that He will lead you
The way that's always right,
The roughest path but brings you
To His own glory light.*

*I know that He will give you
His own deep joy and rest,
I know that He will send you
All that is wise and best;
So I will only wish you
Just His own perfect will,
His own sweet love and blessing
Your inmost soul to fill.*

In Loving Memory
