

*Tomorrow when the sun rises without me,
take in a breath of the breeze,
remember me like the ocean,
and the waters in the seas.*

*Unlike the ebb and flow of the tide,
the pain of your sorrow stays.*

*But please don't cry,
dry your tear filled eyes,
and know that I'm not far away.*

*Tomorrow when the sun rises without me,
look to the painted skies,
and keep me in your memory
like an anchor in the tide.*

SUZANNE

In Memory Of
Suzanne Gehrels

November 20, 1950 - September 5, 2023

Suzanne Marie Gehrels was born on November 20, 1950 to Fritz and Irma (Peterson) Gehrels in Crosby, Minnesota. She attended Pipestone High School in Pipestone, Minnesota and graduated in 1968. She furthered her education by completing a two-year fashion merchandising course at the Southwest Minnesota Technical School. After her schooling, she moved to Los Angeles, California. After five years, she relocated to Phoenix, Arizona. About four years later, she moved to Seaside, Oregon and made a living as an artist and managing an apartment complex. A few years later, she moved to Portland, Oregon and worked for the Multnomah County Sheriff's Department where she remained until her retirement in August 2013. On September 5, 2023, Suzanne died at the University of Minnesota Hospital in Minneapolis, Minnesota at the age of 72 years, 9 months, and 16 days.

Suzanne was gifted in designing and making jewelry, and painting seascapes and portraits. She loved animals and always had a rescue dog and a few cats living with her.
