

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

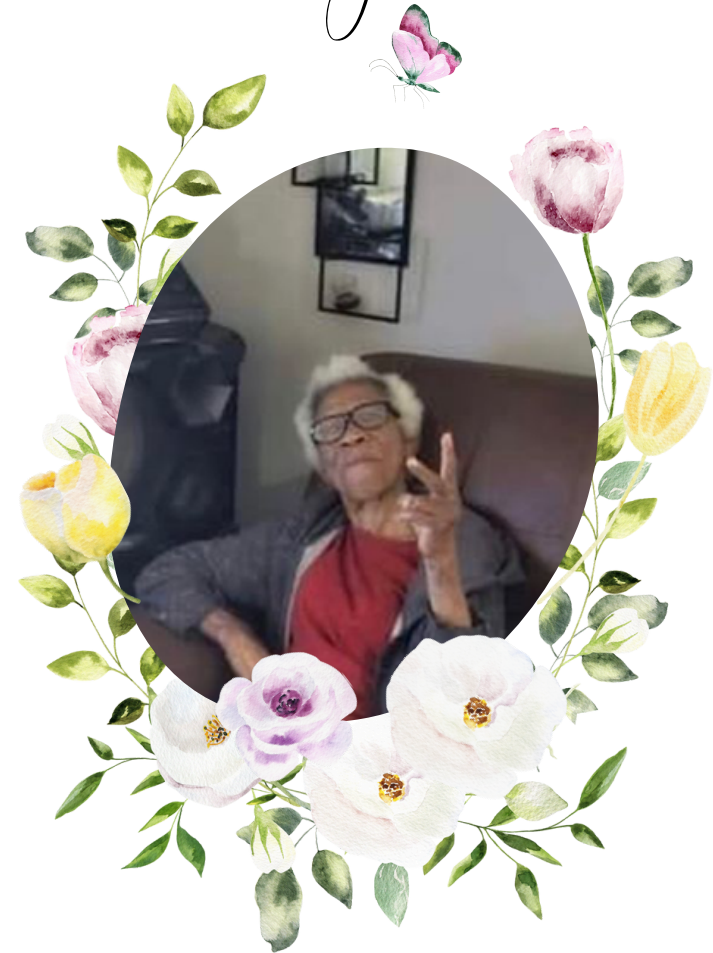

The family of Dorothy Elizabeth Davis Boylan wish to thank you for the many comforting messages, prayers, and other expressions of kindness and condolences received during their time of grief.

As I sit in heaven
And watch you every day
I try to let you know with signs
I never went away.
I hear you when you're laughing
And watch you as you sleep
I even place my arms around you
To calm you as you weep.
I see you wish the days away
Begging to have me home
So I try to send you signs
So you know you're not alone.
Don't feel guilty that you have
Life that was denied to me
Heaven is truly beautiful
Just you wait and see.
So live your life, laugh again
Enjoy yourself, be free
Then I know with every breath you take
You'll be taking one for me.

REFLECTIONS

Dorothy Elizabeth Davis Boylan was born on March 13, 1949, in Sampson County to the late Clela Davis Hines. As an infant, she was lovingly raised by her grandparents, becoming affectionately known as a “grandmama’s baby.”

Dorothy attended school in Wake County and was well-known for her skills in cooking, cleaning, and dancing, as well as her dedication to various jobs. She was a devoted caregiver to her grandchildren and cherished her role as a grandmother.

Dorothy was a faithful member of Emmanuel Holiness Bible Church of God, where she found joy in serving the Lord and sharing her faith. She was preceded in death by her mother, Clela Davis Hines; three brothers; and her beloved husband, Dwight Boylan.

Dorothy leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. She is survived by her aunt, Evangelist Mamie Stewart; her daughters, Lasonya Davis, Suzette Boylan, and Latasha Davis; her son, Leshondric Davis; her grandchildren, Tenika Davis, Timothy Boylan, Robert Davis, Gregory Byrd, Oshiana Boylan, Quality Byrd, William Jr. Floyd, Latrina Floyd, and Elizabeth Floyd; and 35 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will miss her dearly.
