

Shop In Heaven's Grocery Store

I was walking down life's highway a long time ago.
One day I saw a sign that read Heaven's Grocery Store.

As I got a little closer, the door came open wide,
And when I came to myself, I was standing inside.

I saw a host of angels; they were standing everywhere.

And one angel said, "My child shop with care."

Everything a Christian needed was in that grocery store.

And all you couldn't carry you could come back the next day for more.

First, I got some patience, love was in the same row.

Further down was understanding,
you need that everywhere you go.

I got a box or two of wisdom, a bag or two of faith.

I just couldn't miss the Holy Ghost for He was all over the place.

I stopped to get some strength and courage to help me run the race.

By then my basket was getting full,
but I remembered I needed some grace.

I didn't forget salvation, for salvation that was free.

So, I tried to get enough of that to save you and me.

Then I started to the counter to pay my grocery bill.

For I thought I had everything to do my Master's will.

As I went up the aisle, I saw prayer and just had to put that in.

For I knew when I stepped outside, I would run right into sin.

Peace and joy were plentiful, they were on the last shelf.

Song and praises were hanging near so I just helped myself.

Then, I said how much do I owe?

He just smiled and said, Just take them everywhere you go.

How much do I really owe?

He smiled and said, My child,
Jesus paid your bill a long time ago.

Remembering Jane...

Jane Janet Sherrin, 55, of Quitman, Texas, passed away on February 17, 2022. She was born September 15, 1966, in New Castle, Pennsylvania to the late Robert Lee Kelley Sr. and Shirley Mae Kelley.

Jane moved from Gainesville, Texas in 2004 and settled down in Quitman. She had been a Quitman resident for the past 18 years. After her first husband's passing in 2013, Jane fell in love with Lodes Sherrin and the two were soon married on July 11, 2020. She attended the Holy Ghost Central Church in Alba, Texas. Jane had recently become an East Texas Hog Member. One thing Jane loved to do the most was to spoil her grandchildren. She enjoyed going on camping trips, swimming, and attending as many Christmas parades as she could. One quote Jane always stuck by was, "you couldn't starve a fat girl".

Jane was welcomed into heaven by her parents, Robert Lee Kelley Sr. and Shirley Mae Miles, several brothers and sisters, and former husband, Donald Ray Dailey.

Jane is survived by her husband, Lodes Sherrin; son, Charles Laird of Quitman; daughters, Brenda Laird and fiancé Wes Horn of Gainesville, Lorie Workman and husband Lonie of Mineola, and Lisa Kelley and boyfriend Charles Newman of Gainesville; sister, Shirley "Missie" Kelley of Dallas; brothers, Edward Kelley and wife Mona of Arlington, and John Kelley and wife Venus of Grand Saline; 12 grandchildren; one great granddaughter; one great grandson; and numerous nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
