Obituary

Barbara Mae Wilson-Frasier

Barbara Mae Wilson-Frasier was born on June 12, 1947 in Columbia, North Carolina to Carlie Lee Owens and Bessie Luvinia Basnight, who preceded her in death.

She attended elementary and middle schools in Columbia, North Carolina. She attended church and was baptized at an early age. As a child she grew up on a farm, where she enjoyed horses and the life of a farm girl. Eventually, the family would relocate to New York City where she would attend Julia Richmond High School. After graduating from high school, she would go on to attend St. Vincent's Nursing School for two years.

She was eventually employed at the New York Telephone Company and the Board of Education in New York where she would work for more than 10 years. She began taking care of children in her home and would go on to start her own Childcare business. This Childcare Center would have an enrollment of over 150 children. She operated this Childcare Service for 10 years. During this time she was pivotal in the community providing support and advice to young women, mothers and anyone who sought her wisdom.

She met and married Willie Frasier to whom she would be married to for over 45 years. Barbara and Willie Frasier would later relocate from New York City to Savannah, Georgia building a life together. In Savannah she would work at Platinum Travels and First Student Public Transportation, before retiring.

Barbara Wilson-Frasier enjoyed and cherished her family. She enjoyed travelling and entertaining family and friends at home. She was very social and enjoyed membership in the Baroness Club of Savannah, Georgia. She always had a listening ear and always made herself available to family and friends. She had an outgoing personality, and enjoyed laughing and smiling. She loved her Daughters and was always there to offer Love, Counsel and Support. She enjoyed cooking and traveling when she could. She was a sophisticated lady with style, class and a flair for dressing.

She was predeceased in death by her loving Spouse, Willie "Sunnie" Frasier; Sister, Marion Gwendolyn Owens; and Nephews, Jason Owens and Ian Owens. She is survived by her Brother, Ervin C. Owens (Reston, Virginia); Daughters, Donetta M. Wilson (Demopolis, Alabama), Minetta R. Wilson (Savannah, Georgia), and Jennifer A. Wilson (Savannah, Georgia); Grandchildren, Zaquan Button (Savannah, Georgia), Rikia Wilson (Savannah, Georgia), and Christian Reyes (Savannah, Georgia); Great-Grand Children, Journee White (Savannah, Georgia) and Kaison Button (Savannah, Georgia); Nephews, Nile Owens and Ervin Owens; close Cousins, Bernard Basnight, Rodney Liverman, Gregory Liverman, Kenny Liverman, Athelia Ellis, Elsie Basnight and Polly Tanks-Hargrove; and a host of other family and friends. She will be truly missed and cherished by Family and Friends and those who knew her.
