

Remembering the Life....

Linda was born on November 16, 1949 to Vernon and Lorraine (Olson) Chally in Grafton, ND. Linda lived in Park River, ND through the 8th grade and then the family moved to Grand Forks. Linda attended high school at Oak Grove Lutheran School in Fargo, ND. Linda received her B.S. degree at North Dakota State University in 1968 with a major in Home Economics and Textiles. Linda earned her Masters of Science in Special Education from Moorhead State University in 1990. Linda married Dale Siebert in 1971 and they made their home in Carson and then Lisbon, ND where they raised their three daughters. Linda moved to Fergus Falls in 1994.

Linda was a gifted quilter and enjoyed her quilt retreats with wonderful friends. Linda loved to travel and her favorite places included Norway, France, Italy, and Iceland. Linda cherished her time with friends and her family, especially with her grandchildren. Linda was a compassionate teacher who loved her students and connected with them beyond their school years. Linda taught in the Milnor, Breckenridge, and Henning school districts before retiring.

On January 15, 2023, Linda passed away, with her family by her side, at the age of seventy-three years.

Linda is survived by her children, Dana Steele of Fergus Falls, and Kari Winter of Northfield, MN, grandchildren, Tanner, Taylor and Braeden Steele and Regan and Madeline Winter, former husbands, Dale Siebert and Lyle Hoxtell, stepdaughter, Letha Hoxtell, sisters, Deborah (Dick) Grant of Fargo, ND, and Laurie (Chuck) Larson of Bismarck, ND and many nieces and nephews.

Linda was preceded in death by her daughter Amy, parents, and siblings Brian Chally and Cynthia Page and step daughter Carissa Hoxtell.

In lieu of flowers memorials are preferred for St Judes or Camp Grassick.

Blessed be the Memory of Linda Chally

*But my memories will not be empty - for they will be of things I did and people I touched
Of what I'll have left behind me
and even when I am gone
I will still be here...
In those I touched
Those who will be a continuation of me when I am only a memory.*
