

Afterglow

by Helen Lowrie Marshall

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Obituary

Nataly Lizbeth Martinez, 21, of Charlotte, NC passed away on February 1, 2024.

Nataly was born in Bellflower, CA on June 26, 2002 to Jorge Martinez and the late Maria Teresa Rodriguez.

Along with her mother, Nataly is preceded in death by her brother-in-law Chris Renteria.

She is survived by her father Jorge Alberto Martinez and his wife Mirna Martinez, her brother Jonathan Martinez, her sister Sarah Martinez, her children Lila and Kahlani, Orlando and Dora Renteria, Sarai Renteria, her grandparents Jorge Martinez and Morena Martinez.

Nataly was a very smart and artistic person. Like her mother, she enjoyed going to antique shops and finding decorations for her room. She had a very goofy personality and could never walk into a room quietly. She'd either have a weird walk while entering or start speaking in a random accent. Nataly brought so much joy. She also liked doing tattoos. She'd practice on artificial skin. Her drawings were awesome. She often used her artwork to create tributes for her mother. Nataly drew an idea she had for a tattoo and gave it to her tattoo artist to do. It was a cactus plant with her mother's middle name on it. Nataly shared so many similarities with her mother especially their artistic sides and love for antiques. Now that Nataly has passed away, she gets to be up there with her mommy. We know in our hearts they are together right now, finally being able to bond. Nataly and Maria, we love you. May you both forever remain in our hearts.

Memorial donations can be made to Nataly's father Jorge or her children Lila and Kahlani Martinez.
