The Obituary

Harold Louis Thompson was born July 31, 1957, in Detroit Michigan. He was the youngest son of fourteen children born to the union of James E., Sr. and Thelma R Thompson, who preceeded him in death. Also Preceeding in death was brothers and sisters, James E. Thompson, Jr., Julia Pierce, Barbara Thompson, Eleanor Thompson, Clarence Thompson, Charles Thompson, David Thompson, Richard Thompson, and Melinda Bradford .

Harold found his faith at a very young age after being baptized at St.Cecilia church.

Harold attended St. Cecilia Catholic School as well as Detroit Public School. He also attended a Trade school where he learned building construction and drywalling. He did renovatintions on many homes.

Harold had a love for sports where he participated while in school. He was a sports fisherman and game hunter. He would go deer hunting with brothers, cousins, and friends every year during deer hunting season.

Harold was a member of the Knights of Peter Claver Council 299. He was a Fourth Degree Knight. He was a former member of Council 167.

Harold had a passion for music. He played guitar at St. Cecilia/St. Charles Lwanga Church, and was a member of the choir. He also played with his gospel "Blue Down" band. Jazz music was a part of his specialty.

Harold met, fell in love and soon married Allison Hayes, who also preceeded him in death. To this union they had four children.

Harold made his transition on Friday August 5, 2023. He leaves to cherish his memories his children Alexander Thompson (Dawn Craft), Alyanna Thompson(Odell McWilliams), James O. Thompson and Alpha Mallory; Grandchildren Christyna McWilliams, Sophia McWilliams, Jacob McWilliams, Lanaya McWilliams, Braiden and Alexander Thompson, Jr., Siblings Clairece Thompson, Joseph F Thompson, Jacquelin Eirschele (Charles) and Donald Thompson; A very special aunt Peggy J. Terry, a special friend Sharon Mitchell, and a host of relatives and friends.
