Church: Announcements

A Celebration of Life for Barbie Brooks

Our sister in Christ passed away Sabbath evening September 29. Here is what her husband Wade wrote: "Last night while in my embrace Barbie went to sleep in Jesus. My soul mate and best friend of 27 years passed away on our anniversary." ...

"These are the hard times, but Jesus has won the victory over death and I know she rests quietly until that awesome resurrection morning when Jesus will destroy death, pain, tears and all that is evil forever and we can enter the awesome joys of heaven and God's new Creation which Scripture says our minds cannot even imagine for their awesomeness." This Sunday afternoon we will celebrate her life. The service will begin at 2:00pm here in our Eastgate SDA Church.

Church Work Bee Oct. 7 => 7:00am – Noon:

Fascia & Rain Gutters: We need to complete this project and if we had even six people come out, we might be able to get this done. Our next work bee will be Sunday, October 7. 7:00 am to noon. Questions? Call Stan (503) 869-8510

Easy Way to Financially Support MSAS

Do you buy things from Amazon? If you do, you can sign up for Amazon/smile. This is a way to continue to buy the things you want and help Milton-Stateline Adventist School at the same time.

When you sign up, you choose Milton-Stateline Adventist School as your charity, then whenever you buy things, a donation goes to the school. This does not count on all items, just the ones that qualify.

This does not increase the price of any item you wish to purchase.

This is a program that Amazon has been running for a while now to help non-profit organizations. You may also choose a different charity of your choice when you sign up. It is easy to sign up, just go to amazon/smile.com and follow the instructions.
