

A POEM FOR DADDY IN HEAVEN

I know you can hear me
way up in heaven
because we talk through our hearts.

Dear Daddy in heaven
I miss you every day
and I know you miss me too.
No matter how old I get
or how long you're gone,
I hear you, Daddy,
up in heaven
through the love
in my heart.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there; perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. May God forever bless each of you.

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

GLEN WILLIAMS, SR.

October 27, 1950 – March 15, 2024

LIFE STORY

Glen Williams was born on October 27, 1950, to his loving parents Dewayne and Stella Williams in Lubbock, Texas.

Glen's life journey led him to Denver, Colorado, where he built a beautiful family with his first wife Susan Williams. He cherished his role as a father to his sons Glen "Pooh" Williams and LaDon "Bump" Williams. Later in life, he found true love with Victoria Williams and embraced the additional responsibility of raising Largo Maison, Shaniece Maison, Crystal Maison, and joyfully welcomed Dazha Williams as his granddaughter turned daughter.

A man of faith, Glen was a devoted member of King Baptist Church for many years. He completed his high school education and pursued an honorable career in custodial work for over 25 years until his well-deserved retirement. Glen's passion for fishing was only rivaled by his deep love for sports, particularly boxing, basketball, and football. A loyal Cowboys and Broncos fan, he enjoyed watching games surrounded by loved ones in his cherished Cadillac-adorned man cave.

In 2012, Glen co-founded the Colorado Ryders Car Club alongside his close friend Jonas Hughie. Renowned for his automotive expertise, Glen delighted in participating in car shows and showcasing his prized Seville.

Glen leaves behind a legacy of cherished memories and unwavering love that will forever inspire those who were fortunate to know him. He will be remembered as a beloved son, brother, uncle, dedicated father, adored grandfather, and even a proud great-grandfather during his time with us. His impact on numerous lives is immeasurable.

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Glen Williams, Sr., who gracefully departed from this world on March 15, 2024, at the age of 73

He is survived by his son, Glen Williams, Jr.; daughter, Dazha Williams; grandchildren, LaDon Williams, Elliott Williams, Corion Williams, Areyel Williams, Bonnie Maison, Ciara Maison, Christopher Maison, LeeLee Maison; as well as great-grandchildren, Elliott Williams, Jr. and C'neerie Williams.

As we bid farewell to Glen today with heavy hearts but grateful spirits for having known him bestowed upon us by God's grace during their time on this earth. Though he may depart from our physical presence now - he will eternally reside within our hearts where memories of him will forever dwell.
