PALLBEARERS & FLOWER GIRLS

Friends of the family
A Very Special Brother

The loneliness is painful.
It breaks my heart to see that you are up in Heaven,
And no longer here with me.
But I know you will be happy now,
Up where the angels sing.
A place where you are free to go spread your wings,
You will never be forgotten.
Every day I think of you,
You were my thoughts of yesterday and,
You will be in tomorrow too.
Until the day we meet again,
I'll miss you every day.
Keep shining bright in Heaven,
So you can light my way

The Obituary

Christopher Wayne Jackson Jr departed from us on January 22, 2024 at 2:40am on Interstate 95 in Johnston County. He was 17 years old, born on November 18, 2006 at UNC Health in Smithfield, NC.

CJ was a very special person in everyone's life. If you came across him then you knew that Chris had the opportunity to graduate early, but his dedication to the sport he loved, football, caused him to stay in school so that he could play one more year. He was an outstanding athlete, son, brother, and boyfriend. He was just a good person all around. Growing up CJ always exceeded the expectations and goals that he set for himself. He was never the type to give up and he cherished his family dearly.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather Ricky Williams, grandmother Barbara Jackson; great grandfather Robert Williams; he touchdown with his best friend Semaj Williams.

He left to cherish his memory his mother Victoria Jackson; father Christopher Jackson; six siblings: Christasia Williams, Chrisean Hinton, Torianna Williams, Kylia Jackson, Vincier Jackson, and Cemira Jackson; two nephews: Kobe and Kier Jackson; Great Grandmother Louise Williams; Grandmothers Michelle Crenshaw and Semillia Crowder; Grandfather Charles Bailey; 5 Aunts: Niesha Pulley, Lisa Jackson, Sekora Henderson, Jasmine Bailey, and Shanice Bailey; Uncle Martice Crenshaw; Great Aunt Tonya Hayes (Eric), 4 Great Uncles: Robert Williams (Sharon), Charles Snead, Tyrone Parker, and Bobby Jackson. A girlfriend Sha'ziyah Raiford and very special friends Jakeenan and Nellesia Watson.
