Hi Val,

You passed your barre exam with a score of 88.9%, congratulations! A certificate will be sent to you next week stating that you are now, "barre certified by exhale". I enjoyed this collaboration so much and want to thank you for hosting me last week. You have such amazing business savvy for such a young lady and I am sure that you will have nothing but success in the barre industry because you care about your teachers and students.

Hopefully, we can work together in the future.

Let me know how everything goes!

Core love,
