Obituary

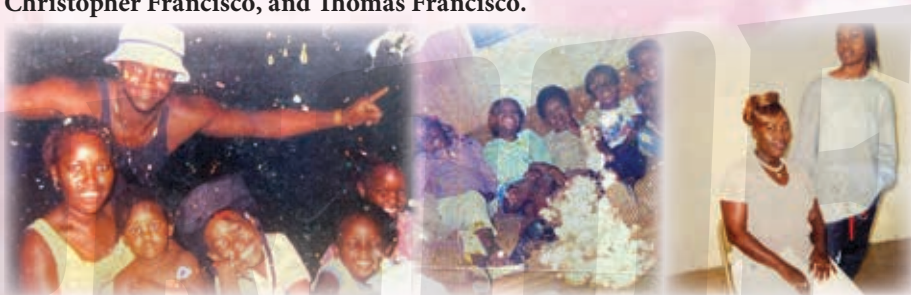

Jennifer Mae Francisco was a resident of Monroe, Louisiana, and native of New Iberia, Louisiana. She transitioned on Saturday, September 16, 2023, in Monroe, Louisiana.

Jennifer was born on May 4, 1981, in New Iberia, Louisiana, to Delores Sam and Eric Hawke.

Jennifer was a beloved daughter, sister, and friend who left us all too soon. Jennifer's journey was one of resilience and determination as she faced life's challenges with unwavering strength. Jennifer's life was marked by her indomitable spirit and a passion for overcoming adversity. Despite her struggles, she persevered, always striving to better herself and those around her. She resided at a halfway house where she worked diligently towards rebuilding her life.

She will be forever remembered for her determination, her kindness, and her ability to find beauty in life's simplest moments. She had an infectious smile that could brighten even the darkest of days, and her spirit touched the hearts of everyone who knew her.

Jennifer is survived by her mother, Delores, and her siblings, Alicia Francisco, Christopher Francisco, and Thomas Francisco.

FROM YOUR MOTHER The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning God was going to call your name.
In life, we loved you dearly; in death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
Part of us went with you the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories; your love is still our guide.
Although we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*

FROM YOUR SIBLINGS

When We Lost You

*We wish we could see you one more time walking through the door,
But we know that is impossible. We will hear your voice no more.
We know you can feel our tears and you don't want us to cry,
Yet our hearts are broken because we can't understand
Why someone so precious had to die.
We pray God will give us strength and somehow get us through
As we struggle with this heartache that came when we lost you.*
