

"A Truckers Prayer"

Oh Lord be with me today as I head out onto the open road for I know not the dangers that this day may hold with a map by my side

Oh Lord let it be you that is my daily guide and as I head out to where the yellow line never ends it sure is good to know that you will be riding with me once again and when I have taken my last load there will be one final trip that I must take one that will be on a road that is paved with gold and there I will rest for there will be no more trips to take once I have entered Heavens Gates.

In Loving Memory

For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

2 Corinthians 4:17-18

Dear God, I cry for those of us left behind, for the lonely ones with hollows in our hearts. I ask You to comfort us, give peace, restore hope, and lavish us with love, family, and belonging. In the depths of loss, meet us with Yourself.

I cry for the legacy this loved one leaves in death, for the ways the world has been made different by their presence, for the memories that become both more beautiful and more painful on this side of death. And I pray that the work You have accomplished in this remarkable life will grow deeper, wider, and stronger in the days to come, uninhibited by a weak opponent like death. - Gregory Cole
