~ Reflections of His Life ~

CLARENCE L. HENDERSON JR.
“CJ”

Clarence L. Henderson Jr. was born February 14, 1990 in Kansas City Mo to Clarence Henderson Sr. and Trenese Soward. Clarence departed his life on May 21, 2023. He now joins his great grandparents Nolene and Harry Bell, mother Tranese Soward, son Messiah Henderson, and two uncles Reginald and Jarvis.

Clarence obtained his GED while incarcerated. He then went on to work in the construction field, helping to build bridges. He had dreams and aspirations to become the biggest rap artist and was very good at making music which was his passion.

Clarence wrote his first rap when he was only 9 years old called “My Name is Little C”. He found a passion for music at a very young age and continued on with his rap career until death.

He was very family oriented. He enjoyed spending family time, laughing and cracking jokes, making people laugh was something he specialized in. He was the glue that held his family together.

Clarence leaves to celebrate his life with his children Cincere Henderson, Ca’Meyiah Henderson, Father Clarence Henderson Sr., grandparents Margaret and Michael Soward, Jannie and Emanuel Hall, sister’s Auviare Henderson, Cinyra Hall, and Cicilya Hall, Brother’s Clavion Henderson, Cavion Henderson, and Classion Hall, niece TraNese Baskin, and his Companion Jessica Johnson, and host of other aunts, uncles, nephews, cousins, and many, many friends.

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile, if only I could have you back for a little while, then we could sit and talk again just like we used to do, you always meant so very much and always will do too, the fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain but you're forever in my heart until we meet again

I Love you, Auvi
