

DONALD L. SMITH

Donald L. Smith, 76 of Oakland died Friday, Jan. 6, 2012 at Greenview Regional Hospital.

He was a Warren County native born near Three Forks to the late Cozy Smith and Helen Duckett Smith. He was a farmer, a Kentucky Colonel and a member of Friendship Baptist Church. He was greatly interested and involved in the life of his family and had a lifelong interest in hunting, fishing and enjoyed sports and gospel music. In spite of many years of poor health, he kept a sense of humor and an optimistic attitude.

He is survived by his devoted wife, Devada Ward Smith and loving daughter, Melinda Smith Keffer of Nashville. He will be greatly missed by his "best friend", cherished granddaughter Kathryn Keffer of Nashville. Other survivors include his brothers; Johnny Smith and wife Janis and Gerald Smith; one sister Imogene Meeks and husband Wallace; two nephews; Shane Smith and Charles Meeks and two nieces, Debbie and Annie Smith

Funeral service will be 11:00 a.m. Monday, Jan. 9 at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial in Martinsville Cemetery. Visitation is 2:00-6:00 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home.
