The Pastor's Blog

Welcome Burman University! We are delighted to be your host and trust that this experience will be as exciting and engaging for you as it will be for us.

As we welcome you, we do so by reflecting on your vision and mission statements. Your vision is “to be the school of choice for students who desire a quality education in a Christian setting that values individual achievement and the spirit of community renewal.” Your mission is “to educate students to think with discernment, believe with insight and to act with confidence, compassion and competence.” It is these words in particular that I remember and that I have carried with me as an Alumni of this great institution. I am sure that Pastor Innocent will also have somewhat the same recollection of this mantra so often heard and repeated during one's time on Campus. As you lead out in this four-part weekend (Vespers Friday night, Divine Service today, Adventist Youth this afternoon and an Acrobatic show later tonight at Woodroffe High School), may the Lord richly bless you in the fulfilment of these words.

The last part of Burman's mission statement (to act with confidence, compassion and competence) will be particularly applicable to us in Ottawa over the next few weeks as we respond to the need for volunteers due to the floods across our City. This work will involve the present sandbagging efforts and subsequent removal of these (in due course) along with the cleaning up of debris left after the flood waters have subsided.

We are appealing to as many members as possible to get involved as our help will make a difference. Our desire is to LIVE THE WORD, and this is one way of saying to our community that we care. Please respond to the call and give of your best to the Master, which in turn will be giving of your best to those who are very much in need at this time.

~ Pr. Robert Greaves ~

We Believe...

We believe that man's only salvation is by faith in Christ's life and sacrifice as the divine means of grace to us. (Acts 4:12; Ephesians 2:8; Romans 8:3, 4)

We turn to the entire Bible as a revelation of Jesus Christ. (Luke 24:27; 2Timothy 3:16)

We remember that it was through Jesus Christ that God created all things and that by Him they are upheld. (John 1:3; Colossians 1:16, 17; Hebrews 1:3)

We trust the Holy Spirit as Christ's personal representative to guide the human mind in Christian duty. (John 14:16, 17; John 16:13; Romans 8:9)

We look to the heavenly sanctuary as the site of Jesus' ministry for us as our high priest. (Hebrews 8:1, 2; Hebrews 4:15, 16; 1Timothy 2:5)

We have hope in the soon personal return of Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13; 1Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Matthew 24)

We find in the Ten Commandments Christ's code of conduct and expect that the believer will evidence the indwelling Christ by the demonstration of spiritual fruit. (John 14:15; Matthew 5:17-19; Hebrews 8:10; Galatians 5:22, 23; Philippians 4:13)

We believe that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit and that we should glorify Christ in every habit and practice. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

We understand that there is no intrinsic life in man, and that any life, present or eternal, is by virtue of Jesus Christ, the source of life. (Psalms 104:29; John 15:6; John 11:25)

We enjoy the seventh-day Sabbath as a reminder of Christ's creative power and as evidence of His redemptive power, which is found in the spiritual rest from the burden of sin. (Genesis 2:1-3; Mark 2:27, 28; Ezekiel 20:12; Hebrews 4:4-9)

We believe that the testimony of Jesus, the Spirit of Prophecy, will be manifest in God's remnant church. (Revelation 12:17; Revelation 19:10)

We are confident that the final judgement will be in favor of those who trust in Christ. (1Timothy 5:24; Acts 17:31; Daniel 7:21, 22)

We feel constrained to share the witness of Christ's blessings to all men everywhere. (Romans 1:14-17; Matthew 28:19, 20)

And finally, we anticipate that Christ will share eternal life with all those who accept His plan, and that these redeemed persons will inherit a restored planet from which all sin and selfishness will have been removed. Then, in a society of perfect trust and confidence, they will enjoy, to the full, the wonders of God's universe. (Matthew 5:5; John 14:1-13; Revelation 21:1-8)
