

Blase John Deichert was born on December 5, 1951, in Flasher, ND. He grew up on the family farm south of Raleigh, ND. He attended St. Gertrude's School in Raleigh, and Hanson's Mechanical School in Fargo, ND. In 1971 he started as a diesel mechanic in Flasher. He met the love of his life, Terri (Theresa) Kilzer, in 1977, then moved to Dickinson to be with her. He married Terri on September 21, 1979. They raised their 3 children in Dickinson. Blase was loved by everyone. He was always there to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He was the neighborhood handyman, and always had spare parts for any project stashed away in his yard shed. Blase had many hobbies. He loved doing yard work and gardening. His yard was always in pristine condition. He loved riding his motorcycle, taking many road trips with Terri and family. He loved his family more than anything, loved hosting family get-togethers, and sitting around the fire pit in the back yard. Blase is survived by his wife, Terri; son, Evan (Erin) Deichert; daughters Brittany (Jordan Kay) Deichert, and Rebecca (Alex) Brown, all of Dickinson; mother, Magdalena Deichert, Bismarck; brothers Ted Deichert, Gladstone, Bernie Deichert, Dickinson, Charles Deichert, Bismarck, Gene (Joann) Deichert, Bismarck, Mike (Jolene) Deichert, Wilton; sisters Mary Hultberg, Bismarck, Helen (Dennis) Baumgartner, Mandan, Donna Deichert, Bismarck, and Delores (Pat) Messer, Mandan. December 5, 1951 - June 15, 2023

Death is God carrying us in one of his arms
while the other flings aside Heaven's door, welcoming us back to the blazing hearth of our first home.
And those inside having arrived long before us rush to the door like glad children, shouting They're here! They're here!
Death has a bad name on earth,
but in Heaven it is a housewarming party
every time the door opens.
And God does not forget his earth bound children, sad and left behind. He leaves the party early to enter into their despair with them, and to get them ready for their own parties...
Someday.
