WALKING TOGETHER

Alberta Camp Meeting

BECOMING ONE

July 11-19, 2014
Welcome to Camp Meeting 2014.
The near perfect smokeless bonfire cast its flame into the starlit night. In spite of its magnetic attraction, drowsiness lured us to retire. Someone separated the burning logs and instantly the flame died leaving only glowing embers. We slept soundly knowing the fire would completely die before long.

How like our spiritual walk! Together we’re strong, separate we’re weak; together we’re encouraged, separate we may be disheartened - and our spiritual flame can go out.

Our camp meeting theme is “Walking Together; Becoming One.” May this theme not be only a cliche but a practical truism! This year, socialize, thereby encouraging each other in the Christian walk; pray together, thereby bearing each other’s burdens; worship together, thereby praising God and rejoicing together. As we do, we walk together and become one.

Most importantly, walk together with Jesus. As you become one with Him, He’ll fan the flame that will never go out. But imagine the magnetic attraction we create when we walk with Him collectively! Maybe that is why Jesus prayed so fervently, “...that they all may be one, as You Father are in Me, and I in You that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me” (John 17:21).

May God bless as we enter this camp meeting together with Him!

Theme Song

Another year and we have gathered from the Rockies to the plains, To thank our God, the greatest Giver, for the fact that Jesus saves!
But as we do, we renew our commitment to You!
Lord, we give You our hearts, and we give You our hands, To unite with each other in this vast prairie land. May this be the fulfilment of the prayer of Your Son, That in walking together we are Becoming One!

— Lyrics and Composition by Nwamiko Madden

Michael Corbel

Michael Corbel was born in Calgary and raised a Catholic until he was 14 years old when his family, having moved from Manitoba to Medicine Hat, attended an Adventist prophecy seminar and were baptized. In 2000 he enrolled in the Theology Program at CUC, graduated in 2003, and was married to his wife Janelle (Rasmussen) that same year. They moved to Kelowna, BC where Michael volunteered at various Adventist churches while working at a cabinet shop. In 2005 he started pastoring at his first district, Olds and Airdrie and in 2009 became an Associate Pastor at Garden Road Church in Calgary. In 2011 he moved to the Onoway and Westlock churches. Michael has a passion for preaching, evangelism and studying God’s Word.

Sandra Silva

Sandra Silva grew up in Hamilton, Ontario. After completing a Bachelor’s Degree in Languages from McMaster University and courses in international business, she pursued a banking career for several years but left it to follow God’s call to study at Amazing Facts College of Evangelism. Sandra worked as a Bible worker/Assistant Pastor for several years and then in 2008 enrolled in the Theological Seminary at Andrews University, graduating with a Masters of Divinity degree in 2010. In January 2011, she was assigned by the Alberta Conference to serve as Nurture Pastor at the College Heights Church and later was asked to serve as Women’s Ministries, Personal Ministries, and KIDS in Discipleship director for the Alberta Conference. Sandra is passionate about sharing her love for Jesus with others.
Lyle Notice
grew up in Toronto, Ontario and from a young age had a passion for the stage. He met a local actor, who recommended him to an agent. Lyle began acting - destined for Hollywood. One day, while preparing to audition for a movie roll, he was caught in a battle of spiritual warfare. After that experience he felt God calling him to ministry. In 2001 Lyle enrolled at CUC and completed a Theology degree in 2005. Upon graduating from CUC, he went to Andrews University and completed a Masters of Divinity degree. In 2008 Lyle became youth pastor at the Ottawa Adventist Church and in May 2012 joined the Alberta Conference as Associate Youth Director. There is an old adage that says, "Children should be seen but not heard." Perhaps it was used to control unruly and undisciplined children, but from a Biblical perspective such a rule is unfounded and unscriptural – in fact it's devaluating. Over and over again Scripture applauds children who are both seen and heard. Children, and older young people, rightly instructed, contribute enormously to God's work in sharing His message of love and salvation with a sin-filled world.

Three of the gospel writers ascribe the value Jesus placed on children. "Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them and said, …unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest… and whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me…" (Mt. 18:1-6).

Evidently children and older young people have a way of getting the message across that sometimes adults, for various reasons cannot. Take the child Samuel for example. Re-read 1 Samuel 3 and let the imagery catch your imagination. First of all, "the word of the Lord was rare in those days; there was no widespread revelation" (v.1). To a large degree, the injunction in Deuteronomy 6 was forgotten. Sin and injustice, crime and immorality apparently had benumbed the consciousness of even the religious leaders to the point God could not penetrate their hardened minds.

Secondly, although Samuel's age is not scripturally recorded, he evidently was still very young. Ellen White refers to him as the "child Samuel." Certainly he was young enough to not yet understand how God could manifest His presence. Scripture says, "Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, nor was the word of the Lord yet revealed to him." (v.7).

Thirdly, even as a child Samuel had the ability to respond to God's call. But it must be noted, that response came with coaching. Eli, recognizing that God must be calling Samuel, instructed him in how to make an appropriate response.

Finally, as Samuel responded, probably with great apprehension, the Lord gave him a huge message and a mission – a message that would strike fear into even the most courageous of men. Consider the stern words, "I will do something at which both ears of everyone who hears will tingling" (v.11), "I will judge his (Eli's) house forever for the iniquity which he knows, because of his sons…and he did not restrain them" (v.13), and again, "the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be atoned…" (v.14). Can a little boy – a child, bear up under such responsibility? Evidently - at least if that's God's instruction!

What does this tell us?

1. We must not devaluate children. They are as precious in the eyes of God as any other human being. Treat them with the utmost dignity, make friends with them, enter into their interests, and win their confidence.

2. Children may not fully comprehend all doctrinal matters as adults might, but that doesn't mean they can't grasp the basics of God's love for them and others.

3. Children can and do respond to the call of God. Granted, there is a huge benefit in godly coaching, and that's the responsibility of parents, church and school.

4. God has, can and may continue to ask children to conduct tasks for Him well beyond what we might think appropriate – tasks that many of us, with our human pride and sophistication would cause us to shudder.

Children should be seen, and when God gives them a message they need to be heard. The question is, "are we listening?"

Will Organization Checklist

Things you should put in a Will:

☐ An Executor (who will administer your estate, take care of business details)

☐ An Alternate Executor (in case the Executor can’t or won’t act in that capacity)

☐ Guardian for your children under age 18

☐ Consider all classes of Beneficiaries to be included (ex: children, a specific charity)*

☐ How much each individual, club, charity, etc. is to receive (percentage or fraction terms are best)

☐ Distribution of chattels where direct conveyance is important (ex: mineral rights)

☐ Alternate Beneficiary(s), who benefit if someone in the first group of Beneficiaries is not alive

☐ If responsible for adult or minor children, a trust or other provision for maintenance

* All your children may benefit as a class, but name step or adopted children to avoid confusion; you may exclude some by name. Include the legal name and registration number of any included charities—example: The Alberta Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, charitable registration #10669-3047RR0001.

Things better put in a letter stored with the Will:

☐ Individuals that you would like to see get specific personal effects

☐ Funeral and burial preferences, service order and participants, grave plot location

☐ List of assets and their location (ex: RRSPs, shares, bank accounts, life insurance, mineral rights, valuable collections, etc.)

☐ Contact information for your accountant

Besides offsetting taxes, including God’s Church in your Will allows you to proclaim that for you, God is always part of the equation.
