

COURAGE COURAGE COURAGE COURAGE COURAGE COURAGE

a true fisherman knows when and where the fish are biting.
 He rises up early in the morning,
 plying the water for that elusive catch,
 waiting in the stillness for a nibble
 A slight twitch in the line, expertly he reels it in –
 A good fisherman
 knows a keeper when he sees one,
 he knows when to toss one back,
 and when to head for home.

During a time like this we realize how much our Friends
 really mean to us.
 Your expression of Sympathy
 will always be remembered.

George Marshall Carroll of Elberton died peacefully on December 15, 2024.

He was born on December 26, 1937, in Red Hill, Franklin County Georgia, the only son of the late Holman Preston and Ruth Bryant Carroll. He lived most of his adult life in Norcross, GA until moving to Elberton, GA in 2002. In 1959, he met the love of his life, Vera Mills in Norcross, and they were married for 64 years. They had one son, Gerry, who has been the center of their lives.

George served our country in the United States Navy for 4 years. He began his professional career with Western Electric and worked 30 years in the telephone industry before retiring from AT&T.

George was an avid gardener, fisherman, and handyman. There was little that George could not do. His vegetable gardens flourished every year much to the delight of family and friends who reaped the benefits. He was a long-time member of the Elbert County Fish and Game Club and served as the vice-president for 10 years. He was also an active member of Bethel E. Baptist church.

George never met a stranger, and could carry on a conversation with anyone. He was quick with a joke or advice, whether solicited or not, and always had an answer for every question.

George was preceded in death by his parents and sisters Bonnie McFarland, Betty Williams, and Linda Kelly.

He is survived by his wife Vera; son Gerry Marshall Carroll and his wife Lori; honorary grandchildren Madison and Zachary and their parents Ed and Leisa Lucas. He also leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews that he loved dearly.

Honor
Loving Memory

Therefore we are always confident

knowing that,
whilst we are at home in the body,
we are absent from the Lord.
(For we walk by faith & not by sight.)

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body.

and to be present with the Lord

Wherefore we labor that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted

of Him

- II Corinthians 5:6-9
