TODAY'S MESSAGE

Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer;
you shall cry for help, and He will say, "Here I am..."
The Lord will guide you always, He will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame.
You will be like a well-watered garden, like a spring,
whose waters never fail.

--Isaiah 58:9,11

Personally, I find great comfort and encouragement in the face of my fallibility by maintaining a close relationship with the Bible... I repeatedly emphasize the centrality of the written Word in hearing God's voice. It cannot be stressed too much that the permanent address at which the word of God may be found is the Bible. More of God's speaking to me has come in conjunction with the study and teaching of the Bible than with anything else... (Nevertheless) our reverence for the Bible must not blind us to the need for personal divine instruction within its principles yet beyond the details of what it explicitly says.
-- Dallas Willard, Hearing God

"My sheep hear my voice."

--Jesus

Safety protocols are in place this morning for a safe worship experience. Please remember:

- Social Distancing of 6 feet wherever possible -- let's minimize touch!
- Try to be observant of traffic flow -- exit the building through the glass doors in the Breezeway.
- Hand sanitizer is available at each door and in restrooms
- Antiseptic wipes and gloves are available for you in the restrooms
- Face coverings are appropriate, especially where you may be in close proximity, such as the hallway or restroom.
