For Today: Count the Stars?

That's what Abram said when the Lord told him he and his wife would have a son. We can't be too critical of Abram. The situation did look impossible. Haven't we often reacted the same way to a promise the Lord has given us?

"Look up at the sky and count the stars—if you can," the Lord told Abram. "That's how many descendants you will have."

Count the stars.

When I'm tempted to say, "Lord, it's just not possible... is it?" and wonder how He could ever make good on His promise, I'll have to step outside and try to count the stars. The stars will remind me: That's the extent to which He is able to make good on His promises. That's the scale to which my God can do the impossible.

Count the stars and hold firm to our great hope.

Benediction

For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself His own special people, zealous for good works.

—Titus 2:11-14 NKJV

Church Symbol and Meaning

The logo reflects the core values of the Seventh-day Adventist® Church. Its foundation is the Bible, the Word of God, shown open because its message should be read and put into practice. Central to that biblical message is the cross, which is also a central feature of the logo. Above the cross and the open Bible is a burning flame that represents the Holy Spirit, the Messenger of truth.

Clark Fork, Sunset tonight: 8:28 p.m.; next Friday night: 8:20 p.m.
