

Acknowledgement

We the family wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to our many friends or all of their kindness shown during our moments of sorrow. Additionally, we would like to thank Delmar Gardens and their doctor, nursing and clergy staff along with the hospice workers.

In life you were patient and kind, you did not envy nor boast, you were not proud. You were honorable towards others, giving freely of yourself, you didn't rush to anger, nor hold a grudge. You stood for what is right and true. In death when I'm up late at night alone starring at the stars you are there. When I close my eyes and shut out the world where nothing else can reach me you are there. When I am surrounded and drowning in the depths of my own despair you are there. Though my heart is weary and my feet are weak you are the strength that lifts me up. You are the reason I crumble and fall into a million pieces and you are the reason I put myself back together again. You are where my faith comes from, I know there is a God because I see its fullness in you. In life and death you are Agape and there is never a beginning nor end for You, God, and Love are forever.

Reflections of His Life

Kirby N. Morris was born on January 30, 1992 in Kansas City, Missouri to Vincent E. Morris Sr., and Kimberly D. Harrell.

He graduated from Northeast High School and earned an Associates Degree from Metropolitan Community College. In 2010, Kirby joined the Army. He served for three years and was honorably discharged in 2013.

Kirby worked as a commercial truck driver and also as an auto mechanic.

Kirby met and married Christina Morris on December 31, 2010. They blessed the world in 2012, 2013, and 2017 with three beautiful girls.

Kirby enjoyed watching the Chiefs dominate the field. But, above all else, he loved spending time with his family.

Kirby departed this earth on Sunday, July 17, 2022.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife, Christina; their three daughters, Kateri N. Morris, Nayeli T. Morris, and Marsaili E. Morris; mother, Kimberly D. Harrell; and siblings, Devon Morris, Cierra Morris, Vincent Morris Jr., and Chris Hawkins; and a host of other relatives, and friends.
