

ARPIA FAYE LANCASTER

Apria Faye Lancaster, 63 of Bowling Green died at 1:22 p.m. June 19, 2007 at The Medical Center.

The Edmonson County native was a homemaker and member of Boiling Springs United Baptist Church. She was a daughter of the late Charles Edward Simmons and Ersie Spinks Simmons of Bowling Green, who survives, and the wife of the late Kenneth Lancaster. She was preceded in death by a grandchild, Clifford Cline; and a brother, Roy Basham.

Funeral is at 2 p.m. Friday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green chapel, with burial in Spinks Cemetery. Visitation is from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday at the funeral home.

Other survivors include three sons, Tim Cline and his wife, Gina, of Bowling Green, Allen Cline and his wife, Patty, of Carbondale, COLO., and David Cline and his wife Laura, of Tomball, TX.; two daughters, Glenia Cline and Amber Nicole Cline, both of Smiths Grove; four sisters, Kathy Spinks, Alta Simmons, Opal Cardwell and her husband, Carlos, and Judy Simmons, all of Bowling Green; two brothers, Johnny Simmons and his wife, Bernice, of Morgantown and Jeff Simmons and his wife, Teresa, of Bowling Green; fifteen grandchildren; five great grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Send Condolences