Reflections

Don't spend too much time in mourning, tears are for the sad.

I left to be with Jesus and this should make you glad.

Don't waste your hours in grieving; no need to feel distress.

I'm tired of life's frustrations and have to get some rest.

Don't vex yourself with questions or try to reason why?

Life here for me was ended, it came my time to die.

Don't lose the love I gave you, feed it with care.

Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way,

We'll have another meeting in God's eternal day.

OBITUARY

McArthur Porter Jr. was born to McArthur and Betty Porter on February 9, 1966 in Savannah, Georgia. He was a lifelong resident of Savannah, Georgia and attended the public schools of Chatham County. Windsor Forest High School being the last school he attended. McArthur was employed by several businesses in the Savannah area. The last being P.K. Hair Design and the Inner-City Night Shelter.

McArthur had a BIG heart and even a bigger personality. He had the type of personality that could change the atmosphere in a room. He would often say, "the party won't start until I get there."

McArthur never met a stranger. He was a member of Christ Memorial Baptist Church, where he was loved.

Preceded in death by his mother Betty Gene Porter, he leaves to cherish his memory his father McArthur Porter, Sr. A dutiful brother Willie C. Porter (Patricia) Savannah, GA. Dedicated sisters Kimberly Solomon (Eugene) Savannah, GA, Cheryl Collins (Woodley) Atlanta. Several nieces and nephews Patreivia (Ron), Antonio (Shanice), Eugene (Gabrielle) Simone, Sequorey, SaQuira, Sabryah of Savannah, Monika of Atlanta and Hope of Savannah. Aunts Barbra K. Batten of Atlanta, Mary Ponville (Rene) of Denver, Colorado, Patricia Bang (Ronald) of Savannah, Cheinita Porter of Claxton, GA. Uncles John Batten of Savannah, GA, Dexter Porter of Texas. A grandmother, Olivia Porter of Claxton, GA and devoted Godmother Elizabeth Small as he would affectionately call her "Mama Liz" a host of cousins, relatives and friends.
