

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

ACCOMMODATIONS: An outdoor rain fly will be set up for a covered gathering area. Bring your own tent and rain fly (tenting is a necessity!)

ACTIVITIES: Gold panning, hiking, target shooting, picture taking.

CLOTHING: Come prepared for cool nights and rain; one never knows!

GUESTS & TEENS: There is no charge for non-SDA guests and mature teens, so bring a friend!

MEALS: Bring your own backpacking food—cooking gear—stove/ cookware.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS: Share your talents—the more the merrier!

PETS: Please leave them at home! This is not the venue to bring pets along.

QUESTIONS: Contact Jeff Burnette, PO Box 521474, Big Lake Alaska 99652, 907-841-6625 or email danielstudies@gmail.com.

TRANSPORTATION: Logistics require that unless you have your own transportation, you must attend for the three days. Transportation options include:

- Hiking: 13 miles one way on a 4-wheeler trail (shorter/rougher than trail below).
- 4-Wheelers: 22 mi/1.5 hr trip on 4-wheeler trail. Don't have a 4-wheeler? Contact Alaska Toy Rentals 775-1800.
- Guides: Fritz Pleier, 376-9179 (If you need directions or would like to tag along on a guided trip to camp.)
- Fly-ins: $300 per person round-trip; $150 per person one-way. Contact Mike Meekin at Meekin's Air Service to schedule flight into camp. Call 907-745-1626 or check their website at www.meekinsairservice.com

YOUNG CHILDREN: Boys, ages 9 and up, are welcome this year as the focus will be on fathers and sons.

RETREAT GUIDELINES

- Leave your dirt bike and three-wheeler at home. Please don't be the object of a rescue going in and out of camp.
- Please, no shooting during the Sabbath hours and use only the designated shooting areas while at camp.
- Be respectful of others and enjoy quiet time from 10 p.m.-7 a.m.
- Please use designated outhouses: one at the airstrip or one at the cabin.
- Clean up after yourself. Kent Sandvik has graciously allowed us to use his camp, let's keep it clean.
- Keep ATV's off the runway and watch for air traffic!

Marty Miller

Men's Ministry Coordinator | Georgia
Cumberland Conference
Founder/Director | Blueprint for Men

Marty Miller is a lifelong disciple of Christ, the loving husband of his first wife, the proud father of two adult children, and has most recently become an exuberant grandfather!

Marty's career path has been primarily in the field of education having served in both public and private sectors from California to Tennessee. He has held positions that include elementary school principal, multi-grade teacher, middle school science teacher, high school science teacher, nature center director, outdoor school director, educational consultant, university education professor, student teacher supervisor, and outdoor leadership program director. He is a well-recognized outdoor professional with skills and certifications that include WMI/NOLS Wilderness First Responder, ACA Swift Water Rescue, and AIARE Avalanche Safety. Marty is gifted at discovering and sharing spiritual lessons from nature, God's second book, as modeled by Jesus Christ, the master educator.

Now, after nearly 30 years in education, Marty has transitioned into full-time ministry by creating Blueprint for Men, a non-profit men's ministry devoted to helping men discover and live out their God-given design in a secular world. Through outdoor retreats, small group support, leadership training, and curriculum development, Marty is helping men to step up and become the men God intended them to be, better husbands, better fathers, and better Disciples of Christ!
